In this Annual Report we may have disclosed forward-looking information to enable investors to comprehend our prospects and take informed investment decisions. This report and other statements - written and oral - that we periodically make, may contain forward-looking statements that set out anticipated results based on the management's plans and assumptions. # Values, Purpose, Progress

At Chola, sustainable growth is a direct outcome of a deeply rooted operational ethos. Values anchor our governance, Purpose directs our capital to where it impacts lives the most, and Progress scales this impact across emerging India. Together, they form the foundation upon which Chola builds long-term institutional resilience and trust.

Values - Our Uncompromising Anchor

Our values are embedded in measurable outcomes and are evidenced by our deep-rooted commitment to financial inclusion focussing on small road transport operators, cash-salaried individuals, micro-enterprises with informal structures and non-traditional borrower segments.

Purpose - Capital with a Conscience

Our purpose is to move capital directly into the real economy, on the road, on the shop floor and in local infrastructure. We go beyond rigid conventional underwriting frameworks to evaluate true earning capacity based on cash flows and borrowers' character.

Whether by empowering 92,000+ micro-enterprises providing flexible credit for mixed-use properties that function as both homes and micro-shops, or financing commercial vehicle fleets that power the nation's logistics backbones, our capital is directed towards a distinct societal and economic purpose.

Progress - Collective Upliftment and Shared Prosperity

True progress is realised when our growth acts as a direct catalyst for the socio-economic advancement of our entire ecosystem - our customers, our stakeholders, local communities and the marginalized lives touched by our CSR initiatives. Our investments in a high-tech, paperless, AI-driven infrastructure go beyond strategic operational efficiencies and are tools designed to democratize and accelerate credit delivery to the last mile, converting institutional momentum into tangible grassroots prosperity.

Message from the Chairman

Dear Shareholders,

At Chola, our journey of progress is anchored in strong values, guided by a clear purpose and driven by an unwavering commitment to serving India's evolving financial needs. Our mission of "Enabling Customers to Enter a Better Life" remains the cornerstone of every decision we make. It shapes how we expand, serve customers, strengthen capabilities and create sustainable value. In FY 2025-26, we continued to grow with discipline, resilience and a strong commitment to integrity, customer centricity and long-term value creation.

During the year, we expanded our reach across India, strengthened our diversified lending franchise and served a larger customer base. Our branch network increased to 1,761 branches, and we served more than 47.5 lakh customers. Our presence in smaller towns and semi-urban markets remained a key strength, enabling us to stay close to customers and support their aspirations.

Performance during the year

FY 2025-26 was a year of steady growth across businesses. Total disbursements increased to ₹1,11,642 crore from ₹1,00,869 crore in the previous year. Business AUM grew 21% to ₹2,24,334 crore, while total assets under management stood at ₹2,42,630 crore.

Total income was ₹31,445 crore. Profit before tax grew 21% to ₹6,961 crore, and profit after tax grew 23% to ₹5,220 crore. Net interest margin improved to 8.0%, PBT-ROTA was maintained at 3.3%, and return on equity remained healthy at 19.7%. Capital adequacy stood at 19.2%, with Tier I capital at 14.7%.

These outcomes reflect the resilience of our model, the quality of execution and the trust placed in us by customers, partners, lenders, regulators and shareholders.

After a challenging period for the sector, demand conditions strengthened towards the latter part of the year. Early delinquencies and non-starter trends also improved, reflecting the benefits of continued underwriting discipline. Diversification across vehicle segments and geographies continued to provide resilience. Faster customer journeys supported competitiveness, with nearly 50% of two-wheeler disbursements completed through fast-track processes within a few hours.
- Loan Against Property delivered another strong year. Disbursements increased to ₹20,459 crore, while AUM grew to ₹52,295 crore. The business remained a strong contributor to our MSME and mortgage franchise, supported by branch expansion, healthy demand and focused execution. PBT grew 44%, and return on assets on a PBT basis improved to 3.9% from 3.6%. We will continue to deepen this business in smaller towns and rural areas while retaining our presence in Tier I and Tier II markets.

Disbursements stood at ₹7,363 crore, while AUM grew 23% to ₹22,688 crore. Over the past three years, the business has expanded from a largely South-focused presence to a pan-India footprint, now serving around 1.68 lakh customers through 712 touchpoints. PBT grew 22% to ₹865 crore, with return on assets on a PBT basis at 4.2%.
- Consumer and Small Enterprise Loans, Consumer Durables and Direct-to-Customer business continued to evolve. Disbursements stood at ₹10,249 crore, and AUM stood at ₹15,113 crore. During the year, we remained selective, focusing on portfolio quality through stronger underwriting, sharper customer selection and sustainable growth. The business now serves 11.5 lakh customers and provides a platform to deepen our presence in customers' everyday financial lives.

- Small and Medium Enterprises business continued to support India's entrepreneurial economy. Disbursements stood at ₹7,312 crore, while AUM grew 41% to ₹9,338 crore. The segment provides working capital, business expansion loans and other financing solutions to small and medium enterprises. Our focus remains on prudent customer selection, strong cash-flow assessment and close monitoring, while supporting enterprises that contribute to local employment and economic activity.
- Secured Business and Personal Loans business scaled further. Disbursements increased to ₹1,667 crore, while AUM stood at ₹3,537 crore. PBT grew 53% to ₹218 crore, with return on assets on a PBT basis at 7.4%, making it one of the higher-return businesses in our portfolio. The business continues to serve micro and self-employed customers through small-ticket secured credit, with disciplined growth.
- Gold Loans our newest business line, was launched during FY 2025–26. In its first year, the business reached an AUM of ₹1,804 crore and operated through 119 branches. With strong controls, trust and transparency, we are building this business to provide quick access to secured credit. In FY 2026–27, we plan to add more than 300 branches, focusing on granular customers around our existing catchments.

Building capabilities for the future

As Chola grows, we continue to invest in capabilities that will support the next phase of our journey. Technology remains a key enabler across acquisition, origination, underwriting, disbursement, collections, reporting and analytics. These investments are improving turnaround times, strengthening controls, enhancing productivity and elevating customer experience.

We are also exploring AI-led interventions, especially in collections, and will extend our learnings to sales and credit use cases with strong governance and accountability. Risk management remains central to our operating philosophy. Our enterprise risk framework covers credit, liquidity, capital, fraud, cyber, compliance and emerging risks. We continue to strengthen scorecards, portfolio monitoring, model governance, stress testing and segmented collection strategies. As our business becomes more digital, cyber resilience and information security remain key priorities.

ESG and responsible growth

Responsible growth is integral to Chola's business model. We remain committed to governance, transparency, regulatory compliance, stakeholder engagement and responsible lending. As we expand our footprint and serve more customers, we will continue to uphold strong standards of conduct, accountability and sustainability.

Creating social impact

In FY 2025–26, Chola channelled its CSR investments across nine interconnected national development pillars—including health, education, environment, and livelihoods—with an overarching focus on the environment. Grounded in a decade of investment, this mission is realized through a National Development Blueprint serving four core communities: Aarthik Engine: Supporting small shop owners and the transport ecosystem—the backbone of Indian commerce. Annadata: Empowering small and marginal farmers who drive rural India. Thulir: Nurturing economically weaker students and young athletes to break the cycle of poverty through education and sport. Sanrakshanam: Preserving heritage and monuments to elevate India's cultural legacy, to a standard of global excellence.

By directing investments into these distinct communities, Chola positions itself as the "Capital for Change." This targeted approach moves beyond basic funding to actively empower the people driving India's growth and deepen long-term community impact.

Looking ahead

India's growth story offers significant opportunity. Rising aspirations, infrastructure development, formalization, digital adoption and expanding credit access will continue to drive demand for financial services. Chola is well positioned with a strong brand, deep distribution, diversified businesses, experienced teams and a culture that balances ambition with prudence.

Our priorities remain clear: grow sustainably, protect asset quality, strengthen customer relationships, invest in people and technology, maintain robust governance and create long-term value for all stakeholders. We will continue to build on our strengths, deepen our presence in chosen markets, scale our businesses responsibly and serve customers with speed, trust and transparency.

I thank our customers for their trust, our employees for their commitment, our partners and lenders for their support, our regulators for their guidance, the Board for its stewardship and you, our shareholders, for your continued confidence in Chola.

Together, we remain committed to building an institution that is resilient, responsible and deeply connected to the aspirations of India.

Best Wishes,

Vellayan Subbiah
Executive Chairman

Message from the Managing Director & CEO

Dear Shareholders,

It gives me immense pride to present Chola's performance for the year and share our priorities as we continue building a stronger, more diversified and future-ready financial services institution. FY 2025-26 reflected steady progress through growth, discipline, customer engagement and future-ready investments.

Our progress is rooted in the values that define us - Integrity, Passion, Quality, Respect and Responsibility and guided by our purpose of expanding access to responsible and inclusive financial solutions. As we strengthen our presence across urban, semi-urban, rural and underserved markets, we remain committed to responsible underwritten products that address customers' aspirations. Our purpose is about enabling individuals, entrepreneurs and families to unlock opportunities and improve their quality of life.

During the year, assets under management crossed ₹2.42 lakh crore, while business AUM grew 21% to ₹2,24,334 crore. Our footprint deepened to 1,761 branches across 26 states and 7 Union Territories, serving more than 47.5+ lakh customers. A significant share of this network is in Tier-III to Tier-VI markets, reinforcing our commitment to financial inclusion.

As we scaled, portfolio quality and risk discipline remained central. We monitored trends across products, customer segments and geographies, supported by collections infrastructure, early-warning indicators, analytics, prudent provisioning and an enterprise risk framework covering credit, liquidity, capital, fraud, cyber, compliance and emerging risks.

Business performance and progress

Across businesses, our focus remained on sustainable growth. Each segment contributed to a balanced and diversified portfolio

- Vehicle Finance remained our largest business, with disbursements of ₹62,123 crore and AUM of ₹1,19,558 crore. The sector faced challenges, but conditions improved in the latter part of the year, supported by better demand trends and customer sentiment. We remained focused on calibrated growth, underwriting discipline and early portfolio behaviour.
- Loan Against Property delivered strong growth and profitability. Disbursements stood at ₹20,459 crore, while AUM increased to ₹52,295 crore. The business remained a key contributor to our secured lending franchise and continued to meet the credit needs of MSMEs, self-employed professionals and customers seeking productive credit against property.
- Home Loans grew steadily, with disbursements of ₹7,363 crore and AUM growth of 23% to ₹22,688 crore. The business has expanded from a largely southern presence to a broader pan-India footprint, with newer branches contributing meaningfully. It continues to address the needs of middle and lower-middle-income households.
- Consumer and Small Enterprise Loans, Consumer Durables and Direct-to-Customer continued to evolve with sharper focus on portfolio quality, underwriting discipline and customer selection. Disbursements stood at ₹10,249 crore, while AUM stood at ₹15,113 crore. Tighter underwriting, improved segmentation and sharper risk filters helped reduce credit costs and improve book quality. The business now serves 1.15 million customers.
- Small and Medium Enterprise Loans continued to support India's entrepreneurial economy, with AUM increasing to ₹9,338 crore. The segment provides working capital, term loans and other financing solutions tailored to enterprise needs.

- Secured Business and Personal Loans scaled further, with disbursements of ₹1,667 crore and AUM of ₹3,537 crore. The business serves micro and self-employed customers through small-ticket secured credit.
- Gold Loans was added as a new business during the year. In its first year, it reached an AUM of ₹1,804 crore. The product offers quick and transparent access to secured credit, and we see potential to scale it around existing branch catchments, supported by strong controls and customer trust.

Technology, data and digital transformation

Technology is now central to customer acquisition, credit assessment, loan delivery, risk management, collections and relationship-building. During the year, we modernised our architecture and strengthened digital capabilities. The Vehicle Finance originations platform moved to a modern stack, enabling paperless onboarding with biometric and face-based authentication. Digital originations also expanded across other businesses.

We continued to build Chola One as a common customer platform supporting any-branch and any-product servicing through shared service and collections infrastructure. We also consolidated enterprise data into a unified repository to strengthen analytics, reporting and decision-making, while refreshing treasury systems on a modern, scalable platform.

Data and analytics are becoming key differentiators. We are using underwriting scorecards, alternative-data models, propensity models, pre-approved offers, risk-based pricing, early-warning indicators and portfolio dashboards to improve decisions across the customer lifecycle.

Artificial intelligence is an important area of investment across sales, onboarding, credit assessment, operations, collections and customer engagement. AI agents, vernacular voice agents, OCR, document validation, facial verification and risk models are helping improve lead nurturing, credit profiling, verification and collections. Our objective is to use technology and AI to improve decisions, reduce turnaround time, lower servicing costs, enhance customer experience and strengthen risk control, with governance and human accountability.

Funding, responsibility and social impact

Responsible growth is embedded in Chola's business model. Our reach across smaller towns, rural areas and underserved markets supports financial inclusion by bringing formal credit to customers building homes, businesses, mobility assets and livelihoods. We continued to reduce our operating footprint through paperless processes, digital servicing, green power initiatives and water-saving measures. Governance, transparency, responsible lending and stakeholder engagement remain foundations for sustainable growth.

Our CSR programmes focus on education, healthcare, livelihood, rural development, water and sanitation, environment, sports and cultural preservation. Initiatives such as Aarthik Engine, Annadata, Thulir and Project Sanrakshanam reflect our commitment to communities.

Looking ahead

Our people remain the foundation of Chola's success. More than 73,000 employees serve customers across the country and bring our values to life every day. As we adopt advanced technology, trust, judgement, empathy and relationship-building will remain core human strengths.

The opportunity before Chola remains large and durable. India's credit markets continue to expand, supported by rising aspirations, formalisation, digital adoption, infrastructure development and demand for financial products across households and enterprises. We will remain focused on sustainable growth, asset quality, prudent capital allocation, customer engagement, technology-led transformation, people capability and strong governance.

Our diversified businesses, national reach, strong balance sheet, technology investments and customer-focused approach give us confidence in building a larger, stronger and more resilient Chola.

I sincerely thank our customers for their trust, employees for their dedication, partners and lenders for their support, regulators and rating agencies for their guidance, and our Board of Directors and shareholders for their continued confidence in Chola. Together, we will continue to build an institution that grows responsibly, serves inclusively and creates long-term value.

Sincerely,

Ravindra Kumar Kundu

Empowering Growth Through Values, Purpose, Progress

VALUES

FY 2025-26 was a defining year in Chola’s people journey, one shaped by a deeper commitment to building an organisation where people can grow with purpose, perform with confidence and thrive in an environment anchored in care and opportunity.

Articulating Our Promise - The Chola EVP

In FY 2025-26, Chola articulated a formal Employee Value Proposition (EVP), one of the organisation’s most extensive employee listening exercises, shaped through the voices of employees, candidates and alumni across the organisation.

The EVP was built on insights gathered from over 15,250 employee pulse responses, several external reviews across platforms such as AmbitionBox and Glassdoor, focused group discussions, and candidate feedback. The exercise revealed a consistent perception of Chola as a workplace defined by career growth, strong brand equity, learning opportunities, performance-driven rewards and long-term stability.

The findings were crystallised into a simple, yet powerful framework anchored on three pillars:

“I grow here”

Career mobility, capability mastery, stretched horizons.

“I belong here”

Unwavering support, amplified voice, meaningful recognition.

“I matter here”

Strategic line of sight, innovation catalyst, social impact.

Advancing Women at Chola

FY 2025-26 marked another meaningful step in our ongoing commitment to advancing an inclusive and supportive workplace for women. Through initiatives focused on recognition, wellbeing, leadership, and opportunity, we continued to strengthen an environment where women can thrive and succeed.

Programmes such as She Leads celebrated women across the organisation by amplifying their stories and leadership journeys, while Sakhi, the women referral programme launched on Women's Day, encouraged employees to strengthen the women talent pipeline through a special referral initiative.

Chola also introduced dedicated wellness and rest spaces for women employees through the Recharge Room / She Care Lounge initiative across key office locations. Designed as comfortable spaces to pause, reset, and recharge during the workday, the initiative reinforced Chola's commitment to supporting women's wellbeing in practical and meaningful ways.

Women's Day celebrations such as Chandini Chowk to Chola created spaces for connection, creativity, and community, transforming the workplace into a vibrant celebration of women employees.

Bringing the programme to life was HoneyBee, the wellness mascot that became the voice of wellbeing across the organisation, supported through campaigns such as #EnterABetterLife, #BeCalm, #BeAmazing, and #Believe. Together, these initiatives helped create a more open and engaging conversation around wellbeing across teams and locations.

A key pillar of Soukhyam was the Employee Assistance Programme (EAP), which provided employees and their families with access to free and confidential professional counselling services, available round the clock. Awareness initiatives across the year focused on improving accessibility and encouraging employees to seek support without hesitation.

The organisation also rolled out structured wellbeing interventions through health camps, wellness sessions, and focused awareness programmes aimed at supporting both physical and mental wellbeing. Complementing this was Wellness Wednesday, a recurring initiative that encouraged employees to pause, recharge, and reconnect amidst the demands of everyday work life. Through Soukhyam, Chola continues to strengthen a culture where employees feel supported not only in their professional growth, but also in their overall wellbeing.

CSR Report

Annual Report on Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Activities:

Chola has for decades powered the aspirations of millions of Indians — from the truck driver on a national highway to the farmer in a rain-shadow district — We understand, perhaps better than most, that economic participation begins with access: access to healthcare, to education, to clean water, and to opportunity.

In FY 2025–26, Chola channelled its CSR investments across nine interconnected pillars of national development: health, education, sports, environment, livelihoods, rural development, skill development, water & sanitation, and the preservation of India's cultural heritage through four core communities with an overarching theme of environment. This is a belief built on a decade worth of community investment.

This mission is realized through the lives of those we serve. It begins with the Aarthik Engine, our commitment to the CV drivers and the sprawling transport ecosystem—the literal backbone of Indian commerce that keeps the country moving. Chola has been actively working with the Annadata, the small and marginal farmers who represent the heartbeat of rural India. To ensure a future of meritocracy, Thulir focuses on our scholarship students and young athletes, providing the "pioneer" spirit needed to break the cycle of poverty through education and sport. Finally, through Project Sanrakshanam, we protect our heritage and monuments, elevating India's cultural legacy to a standard of global excellence.

Moving forward, we strip away the noise. Every proposal that crosses our desk will be met with a singular, uncompromising question: "By mapping our investments in health, education, and the environment directly to these four groups, to answer the questions of Which community does this serve, and how does it deepen our relationship with them?"

We want to transform "corporate responsibility" into a National Development Blueprint. We aren't just funding initiatives; we are powering the people who power India.

The scale of our health initiatives alone tells a compelling story: over 1.70 lakh health screenings conducted in FY 2025-26, more than 76,000 free spectacles distributed, nearly 21,585 cataract surgeries performed, and 213 children given a second chance at life through cardiac and cancer interventions.

I. Health: Healing at Scale

Healthcare inaccessibility is among the most stubborn forms of inequality in India. Distance, cost, language, and awareness conspire to keep preventive and curative care out of reach for millions. Project Raahi targets the 14 million truck drivers who form the backbone of India's logistics. By transitioning from a "hospital-centric" to a "highway-centric" model, the program overcomes the unique barriers of time and mobility that prevent drivers from seeking care.

The scale of the program in the latest fiscal year underscores its role as a critical safety net for the informal transport sector:

India's 14 million truck drivers are the invisible engine of the nation's supply chain. They spend weeks away from home, eating irregularly, sleeping in their cabins, and missing the most basic health checks. Project Raahi — among India's largest highway health outreach programmes for the informal transport workforce — brings the clinic to the driver, not the other way around.

Vision Care: Static Centre Health Units deployed across highway dhabas and truck stops conduct comprehensive free screenings — vision, blood pressure, diabetes, and BMI. Those requiring spectacles receive them on the spot. Complex ophthalmic cases are referred to partner hospitals. The numbers from FY 2025–26 speak the programme's extraordinary reach:

Total Screenings	Spectacles Distributed	Cataract Surgeries	DR Screenings
1,49,715	76,583	21,585	3,805

The program has successfully pivoted the mindset of the driver community. Historically, truckers viewed illness as an "occupational hazard" to be ignored. Through health literacy sessions reaching over 1.49 lacs drivers, the initiative has fostered a culture of preventive care, focusing on early detection of "silent killers" like hypertension and diabetes.

Operating across India's priority districts (including Bihar, Odisha, and West Bengal), this program treats blindness not just as a medical issue, but as an economic barrier. Chola's rural eye health programme partners with district-level institutions to strengthen primary eye care services and perform cataract surgeries that restore sight and, with it, economic participation.

backward communities across Haryana, Chandigarh, Uttarakhand, Jharkhand, and Maharashtra, Mamatva Centres provide the full continuum of maternal care that public facilities often cannot.

In FY 2025–26, 416 pregnant mothers received comprehensive antenatal care — ultrasound scans, medication, and specialist consultations — followed by supported institutional deliveries and postnatal follow-through. Every one of those 416 births was a healthy birth outcome. Every one of those children began life with the biological foundation they deserved.

A congenital heart defect or a cancer diagnosis is catastrophic in any family. In a family dependent on a truck driver's daily earnings, it is existential. The Gift of Life programme bridges the gap between a diagnosis and a cure, funding surgical and treatment interventions for children from transport-industry families and low-income backgrounds across Haryana, Chhattisgarh, Maharashtra, Telangana, and Tamil Nadu.

In FY 2025–26, 105 children received corrective cardiac surgery and 108 children received cancer treatment — all entirely free of cost. Each number is a name. Each name is a future returned.

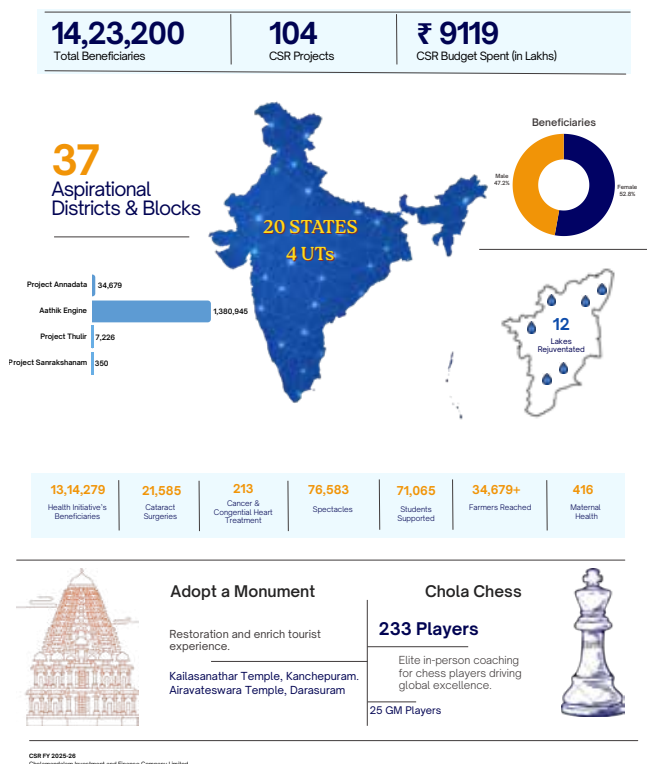

Physical health is only one dimension of human flourishing. Chola's mental well-being portfolio recognises that resilient individuals build resilient communities. Working through Isha Foundation's Sadhanapada and Samskriti programmes in Tamil Nadu and Karnataka, the Company supports yoga training, ancient arts education, and outreach awareness that promotes inner engineering as a practical self-management tool.

Dedicated yoga and mindfulness sessions serve youth and prison inmates — demographics whose emotional challenges are acute and whose access to mental health support is minimal. Hospital clowning interventions for paediatric cancer patients offer a powerful therapeutic complement to clinical care, easing anxiety for children and families navigating the most difficult passages of their lives. School counselling programmes create safe spaces for expression, equipping students with emotional intelligence and coping mechanisms that will serve them for decades.

II. Education: Investing in Tomorrow's India

Education is the single highest-return investment a society can make in its future. Chola's education portfolio operates across two complementary axes — scholarship support that keeps deserving students in the system, and infrastructure investment that transforms the quality of learning environments for the most underserved students. Chola through its support made an impact on more than 71,000 students via scholarships, infrastructural support and other aids to provide assistance in their studies.

CSR METRICS FY 2025-26

The companion urban eye health initiative, centred in Asansol, improves access to primary eye health services for urban-poor communities who fall through the gaps of both public systems and corporate philanthropy. Together, the programmes have touched over 1.57 lakh lives this year — each one a family whose daily burden has been permanently lightened.

The first thousand days of life are irreversible. A child's trajectory — cognitive, physical, economic — is shaped indelibly by the quality of care received from conception through early infancy. For families in the commercial transport ecosystem and socio-economically

Financial pressure is the most common reason a capable student abandons formal education. Chola's scholarship programme targets precisely this failure point, supporting 6,923 students — 3,527 females and 3,396 males — across eight states: Tamil Nadu, Maharashtra, Jharkhand, Bihar, Haryana, Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, and Gujarat. The gender balance of the cohort reflects a conscious institutional commitment to girls' education as a multiplier for intergenerational change.

Each scholarship is not merely a cheque — it is a signal to a family that their child's ambition is worth backing, and to a young person that the system has not forgotten them. Across 6,923 such signals this year, Chola is investing in the future of India.

A scholarship that enables a student to attend school means little if the school itself is inadequate. Chola's infrastructure programme addresses the supply side of educational quality, funding computer labs in special schools, inclusive smart classrooms, science centres, and school transportation facilities across Tamil Nadu, Maharashtra, and Karnataka.

The programme's particular focus on students with speech, language, hearing, cognitive, and developmental disabilities reflects a conviction that inclusion is not an afterthought but a design principle. Science centres equipped with facilities for physics, chemistry, biology, robotics, digital literacy, and astronomy give underprivileged students access to the same quality of learning infrastructure that their more advantaged peers take for granted.

III. Sports: Discipline, Inclusion & National Pride

Sport is a proven pathway out of poverty and into national recognition. It builds discipline, teamwork, resilience, and identity. Chola's sports portfolio operates at three levels: grassroots infrastructure, elite athlete development, and inclusive sports for para-athletes — a comprehensive ecosystem designed to identify and nurture talent from the most unlikely places.

Quality infrastructure is the great equaliser in sport. The programme has invested in sports facilities in schools and training centres across Chennai, Tamil Nadu, creating safe, accessible, multi-sport training environments for 1,089 young athletes. The focus is on physical fitness at the grassroots level, talent identification, and holistic development — teamwork, discipline, and the habits of mind that competitive sport instils.

Excellence without inclusion is incomplete. The inclusive sports programme provides high-frequency mentorship — five to six sessions per week covering conditioning, mental wellness, and nutrition — across badminton, para-athletics, sailing, and tennis. Specialised pathways and equipment for para-athletes ensure that disability is no barrier to competitive aspiration.

A particularly innovative strand of the programme provides vocational training in sport for underprivileged youth, enabling career pathways into the Indian defence services. This is nation-building in its most direct form: transforming talent spotted on a city playground into the uniform of a national institution.

IV. Environment: Stewards of the Natural Commons

The ecological crisis and the poverty crisis are not separate phenomena — they are the same crisis seen from different angles. Communities dependent on rain-fed agriculture, coastal fisheries, and forest ecosystems are the first and hardest hit by biodiversity loss and climate disruption. Chola's environment portfolio addresses this nexus directly, investing in conservation, regenerative agriculture, water body restoration, and climate resilience.

Across Valparai and Sakleshpur, the programme funds peaceful co-existence initiatives that reduce human-wildlife conflict through livestock security schemes, corral reinforcement, crop guarding, and voice-based elephant vigilance technology. In Spiti, Kinnaur, and Hassan, carbon sequestration research and long-term forest restoration build local conservation capacity while addressing climate change. In the Lakshadweep Archipelago and the Andaman Islands, marine scientists study reef health, seagrass meadows, and commercial fisheries — work that is critical to the food security and livelihoods of island communities.

India's 140 million smallholder farmers face a triple crisis: degraded soils, volatile markets, and climate uncertainty. Chola's regenerative agriculture programme works with over 34,000 farmers across 62 districts to restore soil health, reduce chemical dependence, diversify income streams, and improve farm economics. The programme's alignment with agroecological principles ensures that practices are locally adapted and climate-resilient — not generic prescriptions imposed from above.

Farmer Producer Organisations (FPOs) form the institutional backbone of this work, giving smallholders the collective bargaining power and market access that individual farms lack. The programme provides FPOs with capacity building, technical assistance, and strategic oversight — transforming farming from a survival strategy into a dignified, profitable livelihood.

Water is the original infrastructure. In drought-prone regions, the difference between a functioning and a degraded lake is the difference between a functioning and a displaced community. The programme has rejuvenated 12 lakes covering 116 acres, combining water body restoration with groundwater recharge, solar-powered water and energy solutions, and ecosystem health monitoring. Agricultural water availability has improved for thousands of farming families, and biodiversity has returned to restored habitats.

V. Arts & Cultural Heritage: Preserving India's Soul

A nation that forgets its past has no foundation for its future. Chola's cultural heritage and arts initiatives reflect a profound institutional commitment to preserving India's civilisational legacy while making it accessible and alive for contemporary communities.

In partnership with the Archaeological Survey of India, the programme supports the conservation and refurbishment of two UNESCO World Heritage temple complexes: the Kailasanathar Temple in Kancheepuram and the Airavateswara Temple in Darasuram. Infrastructure upgrades, authentic heritage interpretation, improved visitor management, and site safety standards have transformed the visitor experience, increased tourism footfall, and generated livelihoods for local communities. The programme demonstrates that heritage conservation and economic development are not trade-offs — they are the same investment.

Roja Muthiah Research library has been tirelessly working to preserve the Tamil culture via its Tamil Knowledge Campus. The programme has built institutional infrastructure for intergenerational cultural transmission. Structured platforms for young Carnatic artists promote Southern classical temple music through performance and mentorship. The rendering of the Bhagavad Gita's sacred verses into Tamil literature enhances community access to philosophical heritage. These initiatives recognise that culture is not a museum exhibit — it is a living practice that requires institutional support to survive.

Research & Development: Technology in Service of Humanity

Chola's CSR investments reflect a conviction that innovation must be directed toward the underserved. The development of an indigenous ultrasound scanner for maternal and foetal healthcare — operable at frame rates competitive with current market leaders, at a fraction of the cost — is designed explicitly to extend diagnostic imaging to rural geographies where imported technology is unaffordable. A working prototype is complete; the path to commercialisation and rural deployment is under active development.

A parallel research study investigating neuro-hemodynamic changes in participants of the Isha Samyama meditation programme combines functional brain connectivity mapping, cognitive performance testing, and psychological well-being measurement to build an evidence base for mindfulness-based interventions in population health. This is boundary-spanning research — bridging ancient wisdom and modern neuroscience — with direct implications for mental health policy.

VII. Livelihoods, Rural Development & Sanitation

The final cluster of our CSR work addresses the material conditions of daily life — the dignified employment, decent housing, functional sanitation, and accessible skills that make everything else possible.

In Karnataka, Hyderabad, and West Bengal, the livelihood programme has equipped 91 women with professional driving skills — breaking a deeply entrenched occupational stereotype — and enabled 150 women to enter the retail, logistics, warehousing, e-commerce, and NBFC sectors. Financial independence and dignified employment are the foundation of women's agency. Each of the 241 women supported this year represents a multiplier: her income, her confidence, and her story will shape the choices of the women around her.

Having last year supported 14 homes for the Irular community, the programme this year extended dignified housing to 13 families from the Adhiyan community in Tiruvannamalai, Tamil Nadu. Each home includes a toilet, a thinnai, and solar panels powering five lights and two fans. For 52 people previously living in inadequate structures without sanitation or reliable electricity, this is a transformation that no GDP statistic can fully capture.

Vocational training for 2,657 tribal children across Maharashtra — equipping them with market-relevant skills that bridge the gap between traditional community life and modern economic participation — represents Chola's commitment to the most structurally excluded communities. Skills are the most portable form of capital; no market shock can repossess them.

Across Tamil Nadu and Odisha, the WASH programme has constructed 65 toilets serving 60 households and 3 schools, providing safe sanitation to 622 beneficiaries and ensuring proper menstrual hygiene management for women and girls. Dignified sanitation is a health intervention, a women's rights intervention, and an educational intervention — children, particularly girls, who have access to functioning school toilets are dramatically more likely to attend and complete their education.

Through two dedicated initiatives, Chola provides customised hearing aids and assistive equipment through systematic assessment, improving access to learning and therapy for children with hearing and mobility impairments. At Khadakwasla, Pune, Chola Foundation funds advanced life support ambulance services and a comprehensive therapy suite — including palliative care, occupational therapy, speech and language therapy, cognitive therapy, and a sensory room — for 36 children, supporting veterans' families and serving personnel alongside civilian beneficiaries.

VIII. Governance & the Road Ahead

CSR Committee, Board of Directors

Chola's CSR governance framework ensures that every programme is subject to rigorous need assessment, outcome measurement, and independent verification. The CSR Committee of the Board provides strategic oversight, while the Chola team serves as the operational vehicle for programme design, partner management, and impact monitoring. All programmes are implemented in compliance with Schedule VII of the Companies Act, 2013, and in alignment with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

Looking to FY 2026–27, the Company's strategic intent is to deepen geographic focus in aspirational districts, accelerate the scaling of technology-enabled interventions (including the indigenous ultrasound scanner and digital health literacy tools), and strengthen the linkages between our CSR ecosystem and our core business — creating a virtuous cycle in which financial inclusion and social inclusion reinforce each other.

India is at an inflection point. The decisions made in this decade — about who is included in the growth story and who is left behind — will shape the country's social fabric for generations. Chola is committed to being on the right side of those decisions: investing in people, in ecosystems, and in institutions that endure.

Management Discussion and Analysis

MACROECONOMIC OVERVIEW

FY 2025–26 began on a positive note for the Indian economy, supported by strong domestic fundamentals and continuity in economic policy. Moderating inflation, a normal monsoon and resilient consumption contributed to a stable macroeconomic environment during the early and mid-part of the year. The Government's continued emphasis on fiscal discipline, coupled with sustained public infrastructure investment, fostered confidence across sectors, while private consumption and services activity remained robust. Collectively, these factors underpinned broad-based economic momentum and financial stability during the first three quarters of the fiscal year.

Reflecting this strength, the Government of India continued its commitment to fiscal consolidation, targeting a fiscal deficit of 4.4% of GDP for FY 2025-26, while sustaining growth-oriented capital expenditure. Supported by healthy domestic demand and proactive policy measures, India remained among the fastest growing major economies globally, with full year GDP growth estimated in the range of 6.8%–7.0%.

Macroeconomic conditions, however, became more challenging in the latter part of the year as global uncertainties intensified. The escalation of geopolitical tensions in March 2026 led to sharp volatility in global energy markets and disruptions across critical supply chains. The resultant increase in crude oil and fuel prices introduced renewed inflationary pressures and heightened external risks, moderating the otherwise favourable domestic economic momentum.

Despite these global headwinds, India's robust foreign exchange reserves, resilient domestic demand and proactive policy management provided important buffers, enabling the economy and financial system to navigate this period of heightened uncertainty with relative stability.

Inflation and monetary conditions during FY 2025-26 reflected contrasting trends across the fiscal. During the first three quarters, CPI inflation moderated significantly to an average of 3.7%, aided by a normal monsoon, strong agricultural output and effective supply side interventions. This benign inflationary environment enabled the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) to adopt a growth supportive monetary stance. Accordingly, the RBI cumulatively reduced the policy repo rate to 5.25% by December 2025 to support economic activity.

In the final quarter, however, inflation dynamics shifted following the geopolitical escalation. Global crude oil prices rose by 10–13% over a short period, accompanied by sharp increases in diesel and aviation fuel prices, raising concerns around imported inflation and currency pressures. In response, the RBI adopted a more watchful and data dependent stance, with liquidity management remaining a key focus. The Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) thereafter maintained a largely neutral stance to ensure effective transmission of earlier rate actions while remaining responsive to evolving macro financial risks.

For the NBFC sector, FY 2025-26 reinforced the importance of disciplined growth, prudent risk management and balance sheet resilience amidst fluctuating liquidity conditions and evolving credit risks. Maintaining high underwriting standards, diversified funding sources and calibrated asset liability management remained critical, alongside the continued responsibility of supporting credit flow to priority segments of the real economy.

Against this backdrop, the Company remained focused on protecting stakeholder interests through prudent capital allocation, strong governance practices and a long term approach to sustainable growth. These fundamentals are expected to position the Company well to manage near term uncertainties while continuing to create long term value for shareholders.

INDUSTRY GROWTH PROSPECTS

Automobile Industry

The Indian automobile industry sustained its growth momentum in FY 2025-26, supported by a combination of cyclical recovery and structural tailwinds. The Commercial Vehicle (CV) segment emerged as a key growth driver, registering a robust 13% expansion and achieving peak volumes, reflecting strong underlying economic activity.

Segment-wise, growth remained broad-based. Heavy Commercial Vehicles (HCVs) and Light Commercial Vehicles (LCVs) grew by 10% and 17%, respectively, driven by an infrastructure push, rising industrial activity, and e-commerce-led logistics demand. Growth in Small Commercial Vehicles (SCVs), however remained comparatively subdued at 6%, indicating a gradual recovery following a two-year downturn.

The upcycle was supported by multiple structural and policy-led factors, including GST efficiencies, sustained government capital expenditure, the vehicle scrappage policy, and increased activity in the mining and construction sectors. Additionally, the industry is witnessing an early but steady transition towards alternative powertrains, particularly electric vehicles (EVs) and last-mile delivery segments.

Looking ahead to FY 2026-27, the CV segment is expected to enter a normalization phase, with growth moderating to 4–6%, largely due to a high base effect. However, medium-term fundamentals remain strong, underpinned by continued infrastructure investments, rising freight demand, improving fleet utilization, and a regulatory push towards fleet modernization and emission compliance.

The Passenger Vehicle (PV) segment continued its structural growth trajectory, expanding by 8% in FY 2025-26 and recording its fourth consecutive year of peak sales. This growth reflects evolving consumer preferences, including increasing urbanisation, rising disposable incomes, and a marked shift towards SUVs and higher-end variants. Export opportunities and increasing localization levels are also contributing to long-term resilience.

PV growth is expected to moderate to 4–6% in FY 2026-27, signalling demand stabilization after a strong multi-year growth phase. Key growth drivers include rural recovery, new model launches, and continued premiumisation. However, the segment remains exposed to risks such as global supply chain disruptions, semiconductor availability constraints, commodity price volatility, and geopolitical uncertainties.

The two-wheeler segment recorded strong growth of 11% in FY 2025-26, driven by rural demand recovery, improved access to financing, and affordability enhancements. Demand from Tier 3 and Tier 4 markets, along with increasing participation by women riders, has structurally expanded the consumer base.

Going forward, growth is expected to moderate to 3–5% in FY 2026-27, reflecting a transition from cyclical rebound to steady-state demand. EV is expected to be a key disruptor, particularly in the entry-level and commuter segments, supported by government incentives, lower operating costs, and increasing product availability. However, price sensitivity in this segment remains a critical factor.

The geo-political conflict has led to an increase in crude oil prices, resulting in higher fuel costs and creating near-term headwinds for the vehicle finance industry. We expect a moderation in vehicle loan growth, particularly in commercial vehicles along with a potential cash flow disruptions among small transport operators if elevated fuel prices persist. While the long-term growth remains intact, near-term geopolitical and fuel-price uncertainties may create short term disruptions. The vehicle finance division remains well positioned, supported by a diversified mix of products across geographies, strong collection infrastructure, and robust underwriting models.

Construction Equipment Industry

The Construction Equipment (CE) industry experienced a contraction of 8% in FY 2025-26, primarily due to the elevated base of the previous year and a temporary slowdown in project execution during certain periods.

Despite this short-term correction, the medium-term outlook remains positive, driven by the government's sustained focus on infrastructure development across roads, railways, urban infrastructure, and mining. The Union Budget's capital expenditure allocation of ₹ 12 lakh crore provides strong demand visibility for the sector.

Growth in FY 2026-27 is expected to be moderate yet stable, supported by a healthy project pipeline and increased mechanization. Additionally, rising adoption of technologically advanced and fuel-efficient equipment, along with digitization and telematics integration, is expected to improve operational efficiency and lifecycle management.

However, execution risks, land acquisition challenges, regulatory clearances, and input cost fluctuations remain key monitorable for the sector.

Tractor Industry

The tractor industry recorded exceptional growth of 23% in FY 2025-26, achieving peak sales levels on the back of favourable monsoon conditions, strong rural liquidity, and higher agricultural output.

The outlook for FY 2026-27 indicates a likely sharp moderation primarily due to the high base effect and the implementation of stricter emission norms, which could increase acquisition costs and temporarily impact demand.

Over the medium term, the sector's performance will remain closely linked to monsoon variability, crop realizations, minimum support prices (MSP), and government subsidies.

Loan Against Property

The NBFC Loan Against Property (LAP) portfolio is expected to moderately grow by 19-21% in FY 2026-27, driven by rising property ownership, sustained demand from MSMEs, increasing reliance on secured credit for business expansion, and steady sourcing from non-metro and self-employed segments. However, the ongoing geopolitical tensions in West Asia present incremental downside risks through elevated inflation, supply chain disruptions and moderation in economic activity, which could impact borrower cash flows and asset quality, particularly within MSME-linked segments. While the secured nature of LAP provides relative resilience, portfolio performance and growth momentum remain sensitive to evolving macroeconomic conditions and interest rate trajectory.

(Source : <https://www.icra.in/Research/ResearchDetails/2>)

NBFCs continue to benefit from customized underwriting frameworks and faster turnaround times, supported by a deep understanding of local property markets, particularly in underserved segments. Retail-ticket LAP loans remain the primary driver of market expansion, with a strong emphasis on asset quality. Ongoing digitization across application processing, documentation, credit assessment, and portfolio monitoring has further enhanced scalability and efficiency while maintaining underwriting discipline.

Housing Finance (Home loans)

The housing finance services industry is expected to report a double-digit growth in revenues on the back of continued healthy demand for housing, particularly affordable housing. The housing finance services industry is likely to grow at a healthy pace on the back of a revival in demand for affordable housing and an increase in demand for mid-segment and premium-segment housing.

Analysts expect the portfolio of Affordable Housing Finance Companies (AHFCs) to grow by 19–21% in FY 2026-27. Delinquencies remained stable in FY 2025-26 after a marginal uptick in Q1 FY 2025-26 due to portfolio seasoning for entities that sourced significant portfolios in recent years.

The West Asia conflict could potentially lead to disruptions causing an adverse increase in input costs for construction, softening demand, and tightening cash flows — which could lead to customer income and repayment deterioration.

Small and Medium Enterprises (SME)

MSMEs are the backbone of India's economic landscape, pivotal in employment generation, entrepreneurship promotion, and economic development. Through resilience, innovation, and adaptability, MSMEs have consistently driven the nation's growth, providing employment to millions and fostering inclusive development. As India strives to position itself as a global economic powerhouse, the MSME sector undoubtedly plays a central role, fostering innovation, generating employment, and enhancing export competitiveness.

The MSME sector continues to be a cornerstone of India's economic growth, contributing significantly to employment, manufacturing, and exports. In recent years, the sector has displayed remarkable resilience, with its share in the country's Gross Value Added (GVA) in India's GDP increasing from 29.6% in 2021-22 to 30.1% in 2022-23 & 2023-24, highlighting its growing role in national economic output.

Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSME) sector, with more than 7.16 crore enterprises registered on Udyam Registration Portal and Udyam Assist platform, employing 31.33 crores workforce has emerged as a highly vibrant and dynamic sector of the Indian economy contributing around 30% of India's GDP, and 45% of India's exports. It contributes significantly to the economy and social development of the country by fostering entrepreneurship and generating large employment opportunities at comparatively lower capital cost. This sector contributes significantly to inclusive industrial development of the country.

MSME exports have witnessed a remarkable rise, increasing from ₹3.95 lakh crore in 2020-21 to ₹12.39 lakh crore in 2024-25, underscoring their critical role in boosting India's economy and strengthening global trade. The total number of exporting MSMEs in 2024-25 has also increased considerably from 52,849 in 2020-21 to 1,73,350 in 2024-25. MSMEs demonstrated an exemplary growth trajectory, in India's external trade, with their contribution to total exports increasing from around 45.7% in 2023-24 to 48.55% in 2024-25, and further estimated at ~48.6% in 2025-26, underscoring their expanding role in driving India's trade performance and global competitiveness.

The formalization of the MSME sector particularly within the micro and small enterprises segment has gained a significant impetus through the increasing adoption of Udyam Registration and Udyam Assist Portal. Over 7.16 crore MSMEs have been registered by Nov 2025 as compared to 2.5 crore as of March 2024. Higher levels of registrations are expected to not only help in providing better credit access but also enhance the effectiveness and reach of the various government policy measures in the sector.

Impact of West Asia war in MSME industry

The ongoing West Asia conflict has severely impacted Indian Micro, Small, and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) by triggering global supply shocks, surging commodity and crude prices, and increasing compliance burdens for exporters. It is emerging as a multi dimensional stress factor for the MSME sector. The impact is visible across cost inflation, export disruption, liquidity pressure, and demand slowdown, with early signals of credit stress.

The ongoing conflict has triggered cash flow stress across MSMEs, with firms increasingly borrowing just to sustain operations rather than expand. Payments are delayed, shipments rerouted, and working capital cycles have lengthened significantly. Reports indicate that geopolitical tensions may weaken the repayment capacity due to higher input costs and demand slowdown. MSMEs are facing 15-25% increase in operating costs due to fuel, freight, and raw material price spikes linked to the conflict.

Personal Loans

Personal loans—constituting ~11% of NBFC AUM—had sharply moderated from 37% growth in FY 2023-24 to 18% in FY 2024-25, driven by regulatory tightening and lender recalibration. However, CRISIL now expects personal loan growth to improve to ~22-25% across FY 2025-26 and FY 2026-27, supported by better performance of recent originations and more calibrated risk selection. This suggests that while the breakneck expansion of earlier years is unlikely to return, personal loan growth is expected to regain momentum in FY 2026-27, significantly higher than the 15-16% moderation projected earlier.

Portfolio Performance and Delinquencies: The ongoing conflict in West Asia has led to an increase in fuel prices, which is reducing the disposable income of retail borrowers. This is also expected to moderate consumption, as households adjust their spending patterns in response to rising costs.

If the conflict persists over a prolonged period in FY 2026-27, it could adversely impact personal loan growth due to price pressures, supply chain disruptions, and potential job losses.

AUM Share of Personal Loans:

With personal loans constituting ~11% of NBFC AUM, a recovery to 22-25% growth ensures that the segment continues to be a meaningful contributor to overall NBFC AUM expansion.

Given that NBFC AUM is expected to grow at 18-19% annually and cross ₹50 lakh crore by March 2027, the personal loan segment is expected to remain one of the stronger retail growth engines.

Unsecured Business Loans:

Consumer Durables (CD)

According to industry reports by India Brand Equity Foundation (IBEF), India's consumer electronics and appliances sector is witnessing strong structural growth and is expected to emerge as one of the largest markets globally. By FY 2026-27, India is projected to become the fourth-largest consumer durables market in the world, with the sector growing at an estimated ~11% CAGR, driven by rising disposable incomes, urbanisation, increasing household penetration, and a shift toward smart, energy-efficient, and premium appliances. The market size is expected to reach ~₹3 lakh crore by FY 2028-29, supported by favourable demographics and technology-led consumption trends.

The industry posted double-digit growth through FY 2025-26, with strong demand for premium, feature-rich, and connected products, including large-screen televisions, AI-enabled laptops, and smart appliances. Premiumisation is increasingly visible across categories, reflecting rising aspirational consumption across urban as well as Tier II and Tier III markets.

On the supply side, government initiatives such as the Production Linked Incentive (PLI) scheme for electronics and white goods have strengthened domestic manufacturing and localisation. The PLI programme has attracted investments exceeding ₹1.7 lakh crore and has created more than 1.2 million jobs, significantly boosted electronics production and strengthening India's manufacturing ecosystem.

The growth of the consumer durables sector is also closely linked to the availability of consumer financing, which plays a critical role in improving affordability and accelerating purchases. Industry estimates suggest that nearly 35–40% of consumer durable sales are financed, supported by innovations such as no-cost or low-cost EMIs, longer-tenure loans, zero down-payment options, digital onboarding, and paperless processing.

As per the latest CRIF report, the consumer durable (CD) loan portfolio outstanding has expanded to ₹96,000 crore, registering ~14% YoY growth, with a ~7% sequential rise during the festive quarter. This indicates a recovery in originations, supported by seasonal demand and continued adoption of consumer financing. Portfolio quality metrics have remained largely stable, with marginal improvements in delinquency indicators across most lender categories.

Looking ahead, in the long term, the CD finance segment is expected to maintain strong structural momentum, supported by rising credit penetration, growth of organised retail and e-commerce channels, and increasing adoption of digital and embedded finance models at the point of sale. Industry estimates continue to project the consumer durable finance market to grow at ~20–22% CAGR over the period 2024–2029, driven by rising consumption in Tier II and Tier III markets and the wider availability of instant credit solutions.

However, in the near term, geopolitical developments—particularly the West Asia conflict—have introduced downside risks to demand. The conflict has disrupted global supply chains and led to a sharp increase in crude oil and freight costs, along with shortages in key inputs such as petrochemicals and semiconductors. At the same time, rupee depreciation has further inflated the landed cost of imported components.

As a result, manufacturers across consumer durables and mobile segments have been compelled to pass on cost increases through price hikes, leading to higher ticket sizes for end consumers. This, combined with inflationary pressures on household budgets, has started to moderate discretionary spending, particularly in price-sensitive segments.

Consequently, while the long-term growth trajectory of CD finance remains intact, the near-term environment is likely to see:

- Softening in volume growth, especially in mass and entry-level categories
- Increased reliance on financing to sustain demand, partly offsetting the affordability impact
- Margin pressures across OEMs, with NBFCs seeing relatively better resilience due to penetration gains

In essence, the sector is entering a phase where structural drivers (credit access, distribution expansion) remain strong, but cyclical headwinds (inflation, pricing pressure, geopolitical uncertainty) may temporarily moderate growth momentum.

Secured Business and Personal Loan (SBPL)

India's lending landscape continues to exhibit a structural credit gap, with a large segment of borrowers remaining underserved despite having both collateral and repayment capacity. This segment—distinct from traditional Loan Against Property (LAP) customers—is often excluded from formal credit due to rigid underwriting norms, limited documentation, and non-standard income profiles.

The challenge is more pronounced in rural and semi-urban regions, where access to formal banking remains limited. Despite improvements in financial inclusion, barriers such as low financial literacy, informal income streams, and high servicing costs persist. As a result, many households continue to rely on informal credit sources, including moneylenders, highlighting a significant unmet demand.

SBPL addresses this gap by offering collateral-backed business and personal loans tailored to this underserved segment. Its approach combines cash flow-based credit assessment with prudent loan-to-value (LTV) ratios, enabling access to smaller ticket-size loans aligned with customer needs. By leveraging property as collateral while evaluating repayment capacity beyond traditional metrics, SBPL expands formal credit access in underpenetrated markets while maintaining a disciplined risk framework.

Geopolitical conflicts primarily impacts India's self-employed, non-professional segment in Tier 3–8 markets through an oil-driven inflation shock that compresses both incomes and cash flows. Rising crude prices transmit into higher fuel, transport, and input costs, which in turn push up food inflation and reduce real household incomes, forcing customers to cut discretionary spending. For micro-entrepreneurs and informal workers, this results in a dual squeeze—declining business revenues alongside rising operating costs—leading to margin compression, working capital stress, and higher reliance on short-term borrowing. Since this segment lacks stable income buffers, even small cost shocks translate quickly into repayment stress, increasing credit risk while simultaneously driving higher demand for formal credit as reliance on expensive informal sources becomes unsustainable. Overall, the impact is characterised by weaker consumption, volatile cash flows, and elevated credit demand, making it both a risk and an opportunity for lenders like Chola.

Gold Loan

The gold loan industry has emerged as one of the fastest-growing retail credit categories over the past year. The portfolio stood at approximately ₹ 16 lakh crore as of December 2025, growing by over 40% year-on-year. This rapid expansion has been strongly supported by an rally in gold prices. According to India Bullion and Jewellers Association (IBJA) rates, domestic 24-karat gold prices surged from approximately ₹ 64,000 per 10 grams in early 2024 to over ₹1.5 lakh per 10 grams in 2026. This near-doubling of gold prices over a two-year period has significantly enhanced collateral values, enabling borrowers to access higher loan amounts against the same quantity of gold and making gold-backed credit an increasingly attractive alternative to unsecured lending products.

In recent months, gold prices have witnessed short-term volatility owing to heightened geopolitical tensions, which triggered sharp two-way movements as safe-haven demand and oil-driven inflation fears pulled prices in opposite directions. While such corrections have not historically deterred the long-term growth trajectory of gold. Gold prices have consistently delivered over 10% CAGR, the current environment carries a greater degree of near-term uncertainty. Should this volatility persist, elevated LTVs will leave thinner buffers to absorb sharp price corrections.

The growing scale of the gold loan market has attracted increased regulatory attention, signalling a systemic shift in what was traditionally an unorganised sector. The comprehensive measures outlined in the Master Directions are expected to create a more sustainable foundation for long-term growth, while validating the industry's scale and importance within India's broader financial ecosystem.

Despite its significant growth, the gold loan industry remains materially underpenetrated. India holds an estimated 25,000–35,000 tonnes of gold across households and temples, valued at approximately US$4 trillion. Yet, only a small fraction of this vast gold reserve has been monetised through organised lending, positioning the industry for disproportionate growth in the coming years.

BUSINESS ANALYSIS

VEHICLE FINANCE (VF)

Disbursements during the year stood at ₹ 62,123 crores, as against ₹53,922 crores in the previous year, registering a robust growth of 15%. This growth was primarily driven by strong momentum across key segments, new commercial vehicles recorded a 20% year-on-year increase, the new passenger vehicle segment grew by 15%, while the two-wheeler segment witnessed a significant surge of 34%, reflecting improving demand dynamics and market recovery. Assets Under Management (AUM) expanded by 18% to ₹ 1,19,558 crores in FY 2025-26, compared to ₹ 1,01,257 crores in FY 2024-25, underpinned by sustained disbursement growth and product portfolio expansion. Profit Before Tax (PBT) for the year stood at ₹ 3,145 crores, as against ₹ 2,824 crores in the previous year, reflecting a healthy growth of 11%, supported by improved business volumes and operational efficiencies. Stage 3 assets stood at 3.84% in FY 2025-26 compared to 3.52% in FY 2024-25. The marginal movement was primarily attributable to subdued cash flows in certain segments, reflecting continued stress in select pockets of the market.

The Vehicle Finance (VF) business will continue to maintain a calibrated mix of new and used vehicle financing, with a focus on sustaining higher yields and margins. Given its predominantly fixed-rate lending model, the stabilisation of interest rates is expected to support an expansion in net interest margins (NIMs), thereby strengthening overall profitability.

The VF division continues to invest in strengthening its credit architecture through data-driven underwriting frameworks incorporating no-touch/ low-touch swim lanes, leveraging alternate data sources and analytics led decisioning. This enhanced credit ecosystem is aimed at improving risk segmentation, enabling sharper credit filters at micro-market levels, and reducing delinquencies while improving overall portfolio quality.

Deep penetration in semi-urban and rural markets remains a key differentiator. Sustained expansion across Tier 3, Tier 4, and Tier 5 geographies is expected to further diversify portfolio risk, reduce geographic concentration, and enhance last-mile reach for both sourcing and collections. This extensive distribution network, supported by localized expertise, positions the VF division to effectively capture incremental growth opportunities in underpenetrated markets.

Tech-powered centralized lead generation, score based pre-approved loan offers for wallet deepening, hyper-personalized marketing campaigns along with conversational D2C loans are expected to enhance engagement with the existing customer base driving repeat and cross-sell opportunities aimed at strengthening customer lifetime value.

Technology will remain a core enabler, with increased adoption of digital tools and GenAI-led solutions across the value chain including underwriting, customer engagement, and collections. Personalized, data-driven collection strategies are expected to enhance recovery efficiencies and optimize operating costs, further strengthening the resilience and scalability of the VF business.

LOAN AGAINST PROPERTY (LAP)

LAP business delivered a strong performance in FY 2025-26, with disbursements rising to ₹ 20,459 crore, reflecting 14% growth over FY 2024-25 and a five-year CAGR of 41% (FY 2020-21 to FY 2025-26). Assets Under Management (AUM) increased by 26% on Y-o-Y basis to ₹ 52,295 crores in FY 2025-26 up from ₹41,439 crores in FY 2024-25, translating into a CAGR of 29% over FY 2020-21 to FY 2025-26.

Growth was driven by strategic expansion into non-metro markets, supported by distribution scale-up, a diversified channel ecosystem, and a continued focus on retail ticket LAP. The business has also initiated deployment of AI-enabled tools to enhance underwriting processes and KYC verification, improving efficiency. LAP continues to remain a key contributor to MSME growth in India by supporting business expansion and working capital needs, with 97% of FY 2025-26 disbursements directed towards the Self-Employed Non-Professional (SENP) segment, reinforcing the Company's focus on underserved borrower segments.

The business operates through 814 branches across 26 states and union territories, serving over 87,077 customers; notably, 76% of branches are in rural areas, contributing ₹ 7,094 crore in disbursements, or 35% of total LAP disbursements, underscoring the effectiveness of a branch-led distribution model. The portfolio has achieved greater diversification across customer segments and geographies, reducing concentration risks and enhancing overall stability, with over 75% of exposures backed by residential properties and an average ticket size of approximately ₹ 52 lakh. Asset quality remained stronger than industry averages, supported by sustained improvements in collection efficiency, effective Gross Stage 3 rollbacks, and focused collection initiatives.

During FY 2025-26, the business further strengthened its focus on early-bucket delinquency management through pre-delinquency interventions, early risk identification, analytics-driven prioritisation frameworks, and enhanced digital collections, resulting in a significant improvement in customer reach and engagement.

HOME LOANS (HL)

As of 31 March, 2026, the HL business reported over 1.68 lakh live accounts (20% growth YoY) with an AUM of ₹ 22,688 crores (23% growth YoY). The portfolio is from Tier II, III, IV cities and towns. The disbursements for FY 2025-26 stands at ₹ 7,363 crores. The target group remains the lower middle income group customer. The average ticket size stood at 18.5 lakhs with an average LTV of 49.5%. Approximately 88% of the portfolio comprises business owners with semi-formal income and significant business vintage while 17% of customers are first time borrowers.

The HL business leverages Chola's strengths in reaching out and underwriting lower and middle-income borrowers across the country, extending its presence to even the smallest villages and towns through prudent underwriting, careful risk segmentation and a balanced portfolio mix. Chola offers loans for self-construction, purchase of new flats/independent houses, purchase of pre-owned flats/independent houses, balance transfer from other financiers, mortgage of existing houses for business use and shop loans and also facilitates purchase of plot.

Chola has established a strong presence across Tier II, III, IV towns and cities. The business continues to strengthen its channel partner network to expand customer reach. Home Loans now has pan-India presence positioning it well to benefit from steady demand for affordable housing with a continued focus on first time homebuyers in semi-urban and rural areas. The branch network has also been further expanded across states where the Company is already operational. Home loans are currently serviced through 712 touchpoints across 22 states.

ASSET LIABILITY MANAGEMENT (ALM)

India's growth remained strong across FY 2025-26, powered by consumption, rural recovery, government capex, and GST reforms. GDP growth was consistently above 7% through the quarters, and the full-year expectations settled at 7.4%, placing India among the fastest-growing major economies globally.

Inflation fell sharply in the first half of FY 2025-26 due to softer food prices and supportive supply conditions. It firmed up marginally in the latter part of the year but stayed well below RBI's target range, underpinning a stable policy backdrop. The rupee depreciated significantly and approaching historic lows through the year, exerting pressure on the economy.

Liquidity stayed largely in surplus across FY 2025-26. CRR cuts, regulatory eases and strong government cash balances kept liquidity conditions comfortable. The RBI actively managed fluctuations in liquidity and rupee depreciation through heavy monetary operations and forex swaps, ensuring smooth transmission even during brief tight phases.

Interest rates eased steadily through FY 2025-26 as inflation softened and real rates allowed space for monetary adjustment. The RBI front-loaded cuts, bringing the repo to 5.25% with a neutral monetary stance, from 6.25% at the beginning of the FY. However, the long-term yields rose significantly on account of fiscal concerns, tariffs and GST reforms. This was exacerbated in Q4 by the onset of the war in West Asia which resulted in a spike in crude oil prices and critical inputs. The 10-year benchmark crossed the 7% mark in March 2026, up from a level of 6.35%, in spite of a 100 bps cut by the RBI in FY 2025-26.

TECHNOLOGY INITIATIVES

Digital at the Core - Continuing the Journey

Advancements in the areas of GenAI and Digital Public Infrastructure in India coupled with an expanding data ecosystem is driving extremely rapid changes in the lending landscape. These factors are breaking traditional credit barriers, allowing lenders to assess underserved segments using combination of traditional and non-traditional data points to enable frictionless, real-time credit delivery. As this evolves, the Digital Personal Data Protection (DPDP) Act ensures that data democratization is balanced with stringent privacy and consent frameworks. Combined with transformative power of Generative AI, the future of lending will shift from being a process digitization play to an intelligent and deeply personalized financial ecosystem.

At the heart of this transformation will be the tech-enabled and intelligence-led experience, where speed and relevance are paramount. Customers today expect drastically improved Turnaround Times (TAT) along with timely and appropriate product offers tailored to their specific needs. Platforms like Chola One deliver this by providing a seamless, end-to-end digital journey—from origination to servicing. Simultaneously, ecosystem partners such as dealers, brokers, and OEMs will continue to be empowered by platforms like Gaadi Bazaar, which integrate vehicle trading, auctions, and trade advances into a unified digital workflow, creating a cohesive and highly efficient value chain for all stakeholders.

The foundation for delivering a delightful experience for our customers will be based on continuous optimization of internal IT operations through the increasing adoption of AI. Generative AI is revolutionizing the entire software development lifecycle and IT operations. From AI-assisted code generation and automated testing to intelligent support and proactive operations, AI will help in accelerating delivery timelines while improving system resilience. This deep integration ensures that the technology backbone remains as agile and responsive as the market demands.

It is, however, critical that the digital innovation cycle be firmly anchored by robust cybersecurity controls and a secure infrastructure. Delivering next-gen solutions requires protecting every layer - endpoints, networks, applications, and data - while ensuring strict compliance with evolving regulations like the DPDP Act. Beyond technological defenses, the focus also extends to establishing a security-first culture by increasing employee awareness against emerging threats. By balancing aggressive digital innovation with uncompromising cyber protection and risk mitigation, we intend to build enduring customer trust while establishing a platform that blends innovation and customer-centric experience as driver for business growth.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members of Cholamandalam Investment and Finance Company Limited

Report on the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Opinion

1. We have audited the accompanying Standalone Financial Statements of Cholamandalam Investment and Finance Company Limited ('the Company'), which comprise the Standalone Balance Sheet as at 31 March 2026, and the Standalone Statement of Profit And Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), Standalone Statement of Changes in Equity and Standalone Statement of Cash Flows for the year ended on that date and notes to the Standalone Financial Statements, including a summary of material accounting policies and other explanatory information ('the Standalone Financial Statements').
2. In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid Standalone Financial Statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ('Act') in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended, ('Ind AS') and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the State of Affairs of the Company as at 31 March 2026, and its Profit and Other Comprehensive Income, Changes in Equity and its Cash Flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

3. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing ('SAs') specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those SAs are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('ICAI') together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements under the provisions of the Act, and the rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the Standalone Financial Statements.

Key audit matters

4. Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements of the current year. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matters	How the matter was addressed in our audit
Assessment of impairment loss allowance based on expected credit loss (ECL) on Loans (Refer Note 9 of the standalone financial statements) The loan balances towards vehicle finance, home loans, loans against property, and other loans aggregating to ₹ 2,21,941.56 crores and the associated impairment allowances aggregating to ₹ 4,370.40 crores are significant to the standalone financial statements and involves judgement around the determination of the impairment allowance in line with the requirements of the Ind AS 109 "Financial Instruments". Impairment allowances represent management's estimate of the losses incurred within the loan portfolios at the balance sheet date and are inherently judgmental. Impairment, based on ECL model, is calculated using main variables, viz. 'Staging', 'Exposure at Default', 'Probability of Default' and 'Loss Given Default' as specified under Ind AS 109. Quantitative factors like days past due, behaviour of the portfolio, historical losses incurred on defaults and macro- economic data points identified by the Management's expert and qualitative factors like nature of the underlying loan, deterioration in credit quality, correlation of macro-economic variables to determine expected losses, uncertainty over realisability of security, judgement in relation to management overlays and related Reserve Bank of India (RBI) guidelines, to the extent applicable, etc. have been taken into account in the ECL computation. Given the inherent judgmental	The audit procedures performed by us to assess appropriateness of the impairment allowance based on ECL on loans included the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• We understood and evaluated the design and tested the operating effectiveness of the key controls put in place by the management over:               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i. the assumptions used in the calculation of ECL and its various aspects such as determination of Probability of Default, Loss Given Default, Exposure at Default, Staging of Loans, etc.</li> <li>ii. the completeness and accuracy of source data used by the Management in the ECL computation; and</li> <li>iii. ECL computations for their reasonableness</li> </ol> </li> <li>• We, along with the assistance of the auditor's IT expert, verified the appropriateness of methodology and models used by the Company and reasonableness of the assumptions used within the computation process to estimate the impairment provision.</li> <li>• We test-checked the completeness and accuracy of source data used.</li> <li>• We recomputed the impairment provision for a sample of loans across the loan portfolio to verify the arithmetical accuracy and compliance with the requirements of Ind AS 109.</li> <li>• We evaluated the reasonableness of the judgement involved in management overlays that form part of the impairment provision, and the related approvals.</li> </ul>

Independent Auditor's Report (Contd.)

Key audit matters	How the matter was addressed in our audit
nature and the complexity of model involved, we determined this to be a Key Audit Matter.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Reviewed the Company's accounting policies for estimation of Expected Credit Loss on loans and assessing compliance with the policies in terms of Ind AS 109.</li> <li>• We evaluated the adequacy of presentation and disclosures in relation to impairment loss allowance in the standalone financial statements</li> </ul>
Audit in an Information Technology (IT) enabled environment – including considerations on exceptions identified in IT Environment. The IT environment of the entity involves a few independent and inter-dependent IT systems used in the operations of the entity for processing and recording of the business transactions. As a result, there is a high degree of reliance and dependency on such IT systems for the financial reporting process of the entity. Appropriate IT general controls and IT application controls are required to ensure that such IT systems can process the data as required, completely, accurately, and consistently for reliable financial reporting. We have identified certain key IT applications and the related IT infrastructure (herein after referred to as “In-scope IT systems”), which have an impact on the financial reporting process and the related controls as a key audit matter because of the increased level of automation; a few systems being used by the entity for processing financial transactions; the complexity of the IT architecture; and its impact on the financial records and financial reporting process of the entity	Our audit procedures with respect to this matter included the following: In assessing the controls over the IT systems, we have involved our Technology Assurance specialists to obtain an understanding of the IT environment, IT infrastructure and IT systems. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• With respect to the “In-scope IT systems” identified as relevant to the audit of the standalone financial statements and financial reporting process of the entity, we have evaluated and tested relevant IT general controls or relied upon service auditor's report, where applicable.</li> <li>• On such “In-scope IT systems”, we have covered the key IT general controls with respect to the following domains:</li> <li>• Program change management, which includes that program changes are moved to the production environment as per defined procedures and relevant segregation of environment is ensured.</li> <li>• User access management, which includes user access provisioning, de-provisioning, access review, password management, sensitive access rights and segregation of duties to ensure that privileged access to applications, operating system and databases in the production environment were granted only to authorized personnel.</li> <li>• Other areas that were assessed under the IT control environment included backup management, business continuity and disaster recovery, incident management, batch processing and monitoring, cybersecurity controls, end user computing and physical security and datacentre controls.</li> <li>• We have also evaluated the design and tested the operating effectiveness of key IT application controls within key business processes, which included testing automated calculations, automated accounting procedures, system interfaces, system reconciliation controls and key system generated reports, as applicable.</li> <li>• Where control deficiencies have been identified, we have tested a combination of compensating controls, remediated controls and/ or performed alternative audit procedures, where necessary</li> </ul>

11. The Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

12. Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Standalone Financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Standalone Financial Statements. As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:
  - 12.1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Standalone Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
  - 12.2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to Standalone Financial Statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
  - 12.3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Management.
  - 12.4. Conclude on the appropriateness of the Management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the

Standalone Financial Statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

- 12.5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Standalone Financial Statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Standalone Financial Statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
13. We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
14. We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.
15. From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the Standalone Financial Statements of the current year and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

1. Corporate information

Cholamandalam Investment and Finance Company Limited ("the Company") (CIN L65993TN1978PLC007576) is a public limited Company domiciled in India. The Company is listed on Bombay Stock Exchange and National Stock Exchange. The Company is registered with Reserve Bank of India as a Non Deposit taking Non-banking finance company engaged in "Investment and Credit Company" (NBFC-ND-ICC) activities. Further, it is classified as an NBFC in Upper Layer (NBFC-UL) under the Scale Based Regulatory Framework for NBFCs. The Company is one of the premier diversified non-banking finance companies in India, engaged in providing Vehicle Finance, Mortgage Loans, SME Loans, Unsecured Loans and Gold Loans.

2.1 Basis of preparation

Compliance with Ind AS

The Standalone financial statements of the company have been prepared and comply in all material aspects with the Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified under Section 133 of the Companies Act 2013 (the Act) [Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015] as amended from time to time and other relevant provisions of the Act.

Historical cost convention

The standalone financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for the following:

- a) certain financial assets, liabilities (including derivative instruments) and share based payments - measured at fair value
- b) defined benefit plans – plan assets measured at fair value

In the preparation of the financial statements, Management makes estimates, judgements and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities (including contingent liabilities) as of the date of the financial statements and the reported income and expenses during the year. Although these estimates are based on the management's best knowledge of current events and actions, uncertainty about these estimates, judgements and assumptions could result in the outcomes requiring a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets or liabilities in future periods.

The standalone financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees (₹) (functional currency) and all values are rounded to the nearest crores, except when otherwise indicated.

The regulatory disclosures as required under RBI are included as a part of the Notes to the financial statements.

2.2 Presentation of financial statements

Financial assets and financial liabilities are generally reported gross in the balance sheet. They are only offset and reported net when, in addition to having an unconditional legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts without being contingent on a future event, the parties also intend to settle on a net basis in all the following circumstances:

- normal course of business
- event of default
- event of insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company and/or its counterparties

3 Material accounting policies

3.1 Loans – Recognition and Measurement

3.1.1 Date of recognition

Loans are recognised when fund transfers are initiated to the customers' account or cheques for disbursement have been prepared by the Company (as per the terms of the agreement with the borrowers) or when the Company assumes unconditional obligations to release the disbursement amount to third party on the direction of the borrower, whichever is earlier.

3.1.2 Initial measurement of Loans

The classification of Loans at initial recognition depends on their contractual terms and the business model for managing them. They are initially measured at their fair value. Transaction costs/fees which are directly attributable to acquisition of loans are added to, or subtracted from this amount.

3.1.3 Measurement categories of Loans

The Company classifies all its Loans at Amortised cost as the business model is to hold them to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the loans give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely repayments of principal and interest.

3.1.4 Modification of Loans

Modification of a loan occurs when the contractual terms governing its cash flows are renegotiated or otherwise modified between the initial recognition and maturity of the financial asset. A modification affects the amount and/or timing of the contractual cash flows either immediately or at a future date. The company renegotiates loans to customers in financial difficulty to maximise collection and minimise the risk of default. Modification of loan terms is granted in cases where although the borrower made all reasonable efforts to pay under the original contractual terms, there is a risk of default or default has already happened and the borrower is expected to be able to meet the revised terms. The revised terms in most of the cases include an extension of the maturity of the loan, changes to the timing of the cash flows of the loan (principal and interest repayment). When a loan is modified the company assesses whether this modification results in derecognition.

In accordance with the company's policy, a modification results in derecognition when it gives rise to substantially different terms. Where a modification does not lead to derecognition, the company calculates the modification gain/loss comparing the gross carrying amount before and after the modification (excluding the ECL allowance).

3.1.5 Derecognition of Loans

Loan (or, where applicable, a part of a loan or part of a group of similar loans) is derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the loan has expired. The Company also derecognises the loan if it has both transferred the loan and the transfer qualifies for derecognition.

Loan is transferred only if, either:

- the Company has transferred its contractual rights to receive cash flows from the loan, Or;
- has retained the rights to the cash flows but has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass-through' arrangement.

A transfer qualifies for derecognition if either:

- the Company has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the loan, Or;
- has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the loan but has transferred control of the loan.

The Company considers control to be transferred if and only if, the transferee has the practical ability to sell the loan in its entirety to an unrelated third party and is able to exercise that ability unilaterally and without imposing additional restrictions on the transfer.

In case of loan transfers which qualify for derecognition, any difference between the proceeds received on such sale and the carrying value of the transferred asset is recognised as gain or loss on de-recognition of such loan previously carried under amortised cost category. The resulting interest only strip initially is recognised at Fair Value Through Profit or Loss and re-assessed at the end of every reporting period.

In case of loan transfers which do not qualify for derecognition, the loan continues to be recognised only to the extent of the Company's continuing involvement, in which case, the Company also recognises an associated liability. The transferred loan and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Company has retained.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred loan is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration the Company could be required to pay.

3.1.6 Undrawn loan commitments

Undrawn loan commitments are commitments under which, over the duration of the commitment, the Company is required to provide a loan with pre-specified terms to the customer. The nominal contractual value of undrawn loan commitments, where the loan agreed to be provided is on market terms, are not recorded in the balance sheet. The nominal values of these commitments are disclosed in notes.

3.1.7 Loan write-offs

Loans are written off either partially or in their entirety only when the Company has no reasonable expectation of recovery. If the amount to be written off is greater than the accumulated loss allowance, the difference is recorded as an expense in the period of write off.

3.2 Impairment of Loans

3.2.1 Expected Credit Loss (ECL)

The Company records allowance ECL for all loans measured at amortised cost, together with loan commitments. ECL is the expected cash shortfall discounted at an approximation to the EIR. A cash shortfall is the difference between the cash flows that are due to an entity in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the entity expects to receive.  $(ECL = PD * EAD * LGD)$

PD: The Probability of Default is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon. A default may only happen at a certain time over the assessed period if the facility has not been previously derecognised and is still in the portfolio.

EAD: The Exposure at Default is an estimate of the exposure at a future default date (in case of Stage 1 and Stage 2), taking into account expected changes in the exposure after the reporting date, including repayments of principal and interest, whether scheduled by contract or otherwise, expected drawdowns on committed facilities, and accrued interest from missed payments. In case of Stage 3 loans EAD represents exposure when the default first occurred.

LGD: The Loss Given Default is an estimate of the loss arising in the case where a default occurs at a given time. It is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the lender would expect to receive, including from the realisation of any collateral. It is usually expressed as a percentage of the EAD.

The ECL allowance is based on the credit losses expected to arise over the life of the asset (the lifetime expected credit loss or LTECL), unless there has been no significant increase in credit risk since origination, in which case, the allowance is based on the 12 months' expected credit loss (12mECL).

The 12mECL is the portion of LTECLs that represent the ECLs that result from default events on a loan that are possible within the 12 months after the reporting date.

For the year ended March 31, 2026

Both LTECLs and 12mECLs are calculated on a collective basis, for each category of loan.

The Company has established a policy to perform an assessment, at the end of each reporting period, of whether a loan's credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition, by considering the change in the risk of default occurring over the remaining life of the financial instrument.

Based on the above process, the Company categorises its loans into Stage 1, Stage 2 and Stage 3, as described below:

Stage 1: When loans are first recognised, the Company recognises an allowance based on 12mECLs. Stage 1 loans also include facilities where the credit risk has improved and the loan has been reclassified from Stage 2 or Stage 3.

Stage 2: When a loan has shown a significant increase in credit risk since origination, the Company records an allowance for the LTECLs. Stage 2 loans also include facilities, where the credit risk has improved and the loan has been reclassified from Stage 3.

Stage 3: Loans considered credit impaired. The Company records an allowance for the LTECLs.

Impairment losses and releases are accounted for and disclosed separately from modification losses or gains that are accounted for as an adjustment of the financial asset's gross carrying value.

3.2.2 Loan commitment:

When estimating LTECLs for undrawn loan commitments, the Company estimates the expected portion of the loan commitment that will be drawn down over its expected life. The ECL is then based on the present value of the expected shortfalls in cash flows if the loan is drawn down. The expected cash shortfalls are discounted at an approximation to the expected EIR on the loan. For an undrawn loan commitment, ECLs are calculated and presented under provisions.

3.2.3 Forward looking information

The Company considers a broad range of forward-looking information with reference to external forecasts of economic parameters such as GDP growth, unemployment rates etc., as considered relevant so as to determine the impact of macro-economic factors on the Company's ECL estimates.

The inputs and models used for calculating ECLs are recalibrated periodically through the use of available incremental and recent information. Further, internal estimates of PD, LGD rates used in the ECL model may not always capture all the characteristics of the market/external environment as at the date of the financial statements. To reflect this, qualitative adjustments or overlays are made as temporary adjustments to reflect the emerging risks reasonably.

3.2.4 Collateral repossessed

The Company generally does not use the assets repossessed for the internal operations. The underlying loans in respect of which collaterals have been repossessed with an intention to realize by way of sale are considered as Stage 3 assets and the ECL allowance is determined based on the estimated net realisable value of the repossessed asset. Any surplus funds are returned to the borrower and accordingly collateral repossessed are not recorded on the balance sheet and not treated as non-current assets held for sale.

3.2.5 Restructured, rescheduled, and modified loans

The Company sometimes makes concessions or modifications to the original terms of loans such as changing the instalment value or changing the tenor of the loan, as a response to the borrower's request.

When the loan has been renegotiated or modified but not derecognised, the Company also reassesses whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk. The Company also considers whether the assets should be classified as Stage 3. Once an asset has been classified as restructured, it will remain restructured for a period of year from the date on which it has been restructured.

Loans which have been renegotiated or modified in accordance with RBI Notifications (including extensions granted) - RBI/2020-21/16 DOR.No.BP/BC/3/21.04.048/2020-21- Resolution Framework for COVID-19 related Stress and RBI/2020-21/17 DOR.No.BP/BC/4/21.04.048/2020-21- Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSME) sector – Restructuring of Advances, have been classified as Stage 2 due to significant increase in credit risk.

3.3 Loans – Revenue recognition

Interest income on loans measured at amortised cost is recorded using the effective interest rate ('EIR') method. The EIR is the rate that discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the loan to the gross carrying amount of the loan. For credit-impaired loans, interest income is calculated by applying the EIR to the amortised cost. (i.e. the gross carrying amount less the allowance for expected credit losses).

The EIR is calculated by taking into account the fees and costs that are an integral part of the EIR of the loan such as origination fees received for acquisition of the loan and sourcing cost incurred for closing the transaction.

For the year ended March 31, 2026

Fees, charges and reimbursements due from borrowers as per the contractual terms of the loan are recognised on realisation.

Any recovery from written off loan is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

3.4 Borrowings

3.4.1 Debt securities and other borrowings

The Company recognises debt securities and other borrowings at fair value when funds reach the Company.

Debt issued and other borrowed funds are subsequently measured at amortised cost. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on issue funds, and costs that are an integral part of the EIR.

3.4.2 Foreign Currency Borrowings

Borrowings in foreign currencies are initially recorded at the respective functional currency spot rates at the date the transaction first qualifies for recognition. They are translated at the functional currency spot rates of exchange at the reporting date and exchange gains and losses arising on restatement are recognized under OCI in the statement of profit and loss as an adjustment to borrowing cost.

3.4.3 Derivative and Hedge accounting

The company enters into derivative transactions only for economic hedging purposes and not as speculative investments. Derivative instruments are used to manage exposures to interest rate and foreign currency. In order to manage particular risks, the Company applies hedge accounting for transactions that meet specified criteria.

Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value at the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently remeasured to their fair value at each balance sheet date. The resulting gain/loss is recognised in statement of profit and loss immediately unless the derivative is designated and is effective as a hedging instrument, in which event the timing of the recognition in profit or loss depends on the nature of the hedge relationship.

Hedges that meet the strict criteria for hedge accounting are accounted for as cash flow hedge.

A cash flow hedge is a hedge of the exposure to variability in cash flows that is attributable to a particular risk associated with a recognised asset or liability (such as all or some future interest payments on variable rate debt) or a highly probable forecast transaction and could affect profit or loss.

For designated and qualifying cash flow hedges, the effective portion of the cumulative gain or loss on the hedging instrument is initially recognised directly in Other Comprehensive Income (OCI) within equity (cash flow hedge reserve). The ineffective portion of the gain or loss on the hedging instrument is recognised immediately as net gain/loss on fair value changes in the statement of profit and loss.

When a hedging instrument expires, is sold, terminated, exercised, or when a hedge no longer meets the criteria for hedge accounting, any cumulative gain or loss that has been recognised in OCI at that time remains in OCI and is recognised when the hedged forecast transaction is ultimately recognised in the statement of profit and loss. When a forecast transaction is no longer expected to occur, the cumulative gain or loss that was reported in OCI is immediately transferred to the statement of profit and loss.

3.4.4 Finance cost on Borrowing

Finance cost on borrowings measured at amortised cost is recorded using the effective interest rate ('EIR') method. The EIR is the rate that discounts estimated future payments through the expected life of the borrowing to its gross carrying amount. The EIR is calculated taking in to account any discount or premium on issue funds, and costs that are an integral part of the EIR.

4 Other accounting policies

4.1 Cash and Cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

4.2 Bank balances other cash and cash equivalents

These are measured at amortised cost as they are held for collecting contractual cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on principal outstanding.

4.3 Receivables and other financial assets

Receivables and other financial assets are measured at amortised cost. The Company follows a 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on these assets. The application of simplified approach does not require the Company to track changes in credit risk and calculated on case-by-case approach, taking into consideration different recovery scenarios.

4.4 Investments

Investments are initially recognised on the trade date, i.e., the date that the company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

4.4.1 Equity instruments

Equity Investment in Subsidiaries ,Associates and Joint Ventures are carried at Cost and are subject to impairment assessment of every reporting period.

The Company subsequently measures all equity investments other than investment in subsidiaries and associates, at fair value through profit or loss, unless the Company's management has elected to classify irrevocably some of its equity investments not held for trading as equity instruments at Fair value through OCI (FVOCI). Such classification is determined on an instrument-by-instrument basis.

Gains and losses on these equity instruments are never recycled to profit or loss. Dividends are recognised in profit or loss as dividend income when the right of the payment has been established, except when the Company benefits from such proceeds as a recovery of part of the cost of the instrument, in which case, such gains are recorded in OCI (Other Comprehensive Income). Equity instruments at FVOCI are not subject to an impairment assessment.

4.4.2 Other Instruments

Investment in other instruments is measured at amortised cost if they are held for collecting contractual cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on principal outstanding. The Company follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on these assets. The application of simplified approach does not require the Company to track changes in credit risk and calculated on case by case approach, taking into consideration different recovery scenarios.

Investments which do not meet the SPPI test are measured at fair value through profit or loss.

4.5 Taxes

4.5.1 Current tax

Current tax comprises amount of tax payable in respect to the taxable income or loss for the year determined in accordance with Income Tax Act, 1961 and any adjustment to tax payable or receivable in respect of prior years.

Current tax assets and liabilities for the current and prior years are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from, or paid to, the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted, or substantively enacted, by the reporting date in the countries where the Company operates and generates taxable income.

Current tax assets and liabilities are offset only if there is a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and is intended to realise the asset and settle the liability on a net basis or simultaneously.

Current income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity). Current tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate.

4.5.2 Deferred Tax

Deferred tax is provided on temporary differences at the reporting date between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are re-assessed at each reporting date and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date. Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity). Deferred tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the deferred taxes relate to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority and intends to settle on net basis.

4.6 Investment Property

Investment property represents property held to earn rentals or for capital appreciation or both.

Investment properties are measured initially at cost, including transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment properties are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment loss, if any.

Depreciation on building classified as investment property has been provided on the straight-line method over a period of 60 years based on the Company's estimate of their useful lives taking into consideration technical factors, which is the same as the period prescribed in Sch II to the Companies Act 2013.

4.7 Property, plant and equipment

Property plant and equipment is stated at cost (net of tax/duty credits availed) excluding the costs of day-to-day servicing, less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment in value. Cost includes professional fees/charges related to acquisition of property plant and equipment. Changes in the expected useful life are accounted for by changing the amortisation period or methodology, as appropriate, and treated as changes in accounting estimates.

Subsequent expenditure incurred, is capitalised only if it results in economic useful life beyond the original estimate.

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to write down the cost of property and equipment to their residual values over their estimated useful lives. Land is not depreciated.

Useful life of assets as per Schedule II:

Asset Description	Estimated Useful Life
Buildings	60/30/5 years
Computer Equipment	3 years
Other Equipment	5 years
Leasehold improvements	Lease period or 5 years whichever is lower
Plant and Machinery	15 years
Servers	6 years

Useful life of assets based on Management's estimation, and which are different from those specified in schedule II:

Asset description	Estimated useful life
Furniture and Fixtures	5 years
Vehicles	5 years

The above estimated useful life is based on respective asset usage policy or pattern of the Company.

The residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of property, plant and equipment are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Property plant and equipment is derecognised on disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is recognised in other income / expense in the statement of profit and loss in the year the asset is derecognised. The date of disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is the date the recipient obtains control of that item.

4.8 Leases

The Company's lease asset consists of leases for buildings. The Company assesses whether a contract contains a lease, at inception of a contract.

At the date of commencement of the lease, the Company recognises a right-to-use asset and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short-term leases) and low value leases. For these short-term and low value leases, the Company recognises the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

The right-to-use asset is initially recognised at cost which comprises of the initial amount of lease liability adjusted for lease payments made or prior to commencement date plus any direct cost i.e. lease incentives. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment loss if any.

Certain lease arrangements include the options to extend or terminate the lease before the end of the lease term. ROU assets and lease liabilities includes these options when it is reasonably certain that they will be exercised.

Right-to-Use assets are depreciated from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term. Right to use assets are evaluated for recoverability whenever events or changes in the circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable.

The lease liability is initially measured at amortised cost at the present value of the future lease payments. The lease payments are discounted using the incremental borrowing rates in the country of domicile of the leases. The Company has used single discount rate to a portfolio of leases with similar characteristics. Lease liabilities are remeasured with a corresponding adjustment to the related right to use asset if the Company changes its assessment as to whether it will exercise an extension or a termination option.

The Company has opted to present the Right to use as a part of the block of asset to which the lease pertains to and consequently, the Right to use asset has been presented as a part of Property, plant and equipment under the Buildings block, whereas the lease liability is presented under Other Financial Liabilities in the Balance Sheet. Lease payments made by the Company are classified as financing cash flows.

4.9 Intangible assets

The Company's intangible assets mainly include the value of computer software and internally generated software.

An intangible asset is recognised only when its cost can be measured reliably and it is probable that the expected future economic benefits that are attributable to it will flow to the Company.

For the year ended March 31, 2026

Intangible assets including internally generated are measured on initial recognition at cost. Subsequently, they are carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment losses if any, and are amortised over their estimated useful life on the straight-line basis over a 3-year period or the license period whichever is lower.

The carrying amount of the assets is reviewed at each Balance sheet date to ascertain impairment based on internal or external factors. Impairment loss, if any, is provided to the extent, the carrying amount of assets exceeds their recoverable amount. Recoverable amount is the higher of an assets net selling price and the present value of estimated future cash flows expected to arise from the continuing use of the asset and from its disposal at the end of its useful life.

4.10 Input Tax Credit (Goods and Service Tax)

Input Tax Credit is accounted for in the books in the period when the underlying service / supply received is accounted to the extent permitted as per the applicable regulatory laws and when there is no uncertainty in availing / utilising the same. The ineligible input credit is charged off to the respective expense or capitalised as part of asset cost as applicable.

4.11 Provisions and Contingent liabilities

Provisions are recognised only when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of past events, and it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. When the effect of the time value of money is material, the Company determines the level of provision by discounting the expected cash flows at a pre-tax rate reflecting the current rates specific to the liability. The expense relating to any provision is presented in the statement of profit and loss net of any reimbursement.

Provisions are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate. If it is no longer probable that an outflow of resources would be required to settle the obligation, the provision is reversed.

Contingent liability is disclosed in case of present obligation arising from past events, when it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligations and the present obligation arising from past events, when no reliable estimate is possible.

4.12 Share Based Payments

Stock options are granted to the employees under the stock option scheme. The costs of stock options granted to the employees (equity-settled awards) of the Company are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments granted. For each stock option, the measurement of fair value is performed on the grant date. The grant date is the date on which the Company and the employees agree to the stock option scheme. The fair value so determined is revised only if the stock option scheme is modified in a manner that is beneficial to the employees.

This cost is recognised, together with a corresponding increase in share-based payment (SBP) reserves in equity, over the period in which the performance and/or service conditions are fulfilled in employee benefits expense. The cumulative expense recognised for equity-settled transactions at each reporting date until the vesting date reflects the extent to which the vesting period has expired and the Company's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest. The statement of profit and loss expense or Credit for a period represents the movement in cumulative expense recognised as at the beginning and end of that period and is recognised in employee benefits expense. On cancellation or lapse of options granted to employees, the compensation charged earlier will be moved from share-based payment reserve with corresponding credit in retained earnings.

The dilutive effect of outstanding options is reflected as additional share dilution in the computation of diluted earnings per share.

If the options vests in instalments (i.e. the options vest pro rata over the service period), then each instalment is treated as a separate share option grant because each instalment has a different vesting period.

4.13 Dividend on ordinary shares

The Company recognises a liability to make cash distributions to equity holders when the distribution is authorised and the distribution is no longer at the discretion of the Company. A corresponding amount is then recognised directly in equity. As per the Companies Act, 2013 in India, a distribution of final dividend is authorised when it is approved by the shareholders. In case of interim dividend, the distribution is authorised by the board and is recognised at the time of payment as they are revocable till actually paid.

4.14 Revenue recognition - other than financial assets

Revenue (other than for those items to which Ind AS 109 Financial Instruments are applicable) is recognised at fair value of the consideration received or receivable when the company satisfies the performance obligation under the contract with the customer.

4.15 Dividend Income

Dividend income (including from FVOCI investments) is recognised when the Company's right to receive the payment is established and it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the entity and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

For the year ended March 31, 2026

4.16 Employee benefits

(i) Short-term obligations

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service are recognized in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting period and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. The liabilities are presented as employee benefit obligations in the balance sheet.

(ii) Post-employment obligations

The company operates the following post-employment schemes:

- (a) defined contribution plans such as provident fund, superannuation and Employee's state insurance scheme
- (b) defined benefit plans such as gratuity

a) Defined Contribution Scheme

Retirement benefit in the form of provident fund is a defined contribution scheme. The Company has no obligation, other than the contribution payable to the provident fund. The Company recognises contribution payable to the provident fund scheme as an expense, when an employee renders the related service.

Employees' State Insurance: The Company contributes to Employees State Insurance Scheme and recognizes such contribution as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the period when services are rendered by the employees.

Superannuation: The Company contributes a sum equivalent to 15% of eligible employees' salary to a Superannuation Fund administered by trustees and managed by Life Insurance Corporation of India ("LIC"). The Company has no liability for future Superannuation Fund benefits other than its contribution and recognizes such contributions as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the period when services are rendered by the employees.

b) Defined Benefit Scheme

Gratuity: The Company makes contribution to a Gratuity Fund administered by trustees and managed by LIC. The Company accounts its liability for future gratuity benefits based on actuarial valuation, as at the Balance Sheet date, determined every year by an independent actuary using the Projected Unit Credit method.

Re-measurements, comprising of actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the asset ceiling, excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability and the return on plan assets, are recognised immediately in the balance sheet with a corresponding debit or credit to retained earnings through OCI in the period in which they occur. Remeasurements are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods.

Past service costs are recognised in profit or loss on the earlier of:

- ▶ The date of the plan amendment or curtailment, and
- ▶ The date that the Company recognises related restructuring costs

Net interest is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net defined benefit liability or asset. The Company recognises the following changes in the net defined benefit obligation as an expense in the statement of profit and loss:

- ▶ Service costs comprising current service costs, past-service costs, gains and losses on curtailments and non-routine settlements; and
- ▶ Net interest expense or income

c) Compensated Absences: The Company treats its liability for compensated absences based on actuarial valuation as at the Balance Sheet date, determined by an independent actuary using the Projected Unit Credit method.

Actuarial gains and losses are recognised under OCI in the statement of Profit and Loss in the year in which they occur and not deferred.

4.17 Earnings Per Share

Basic Earnings Per Share is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year.

Earnings considered for Earnings per share is the net profit for the year after deducting preference dividend, if any, and attributable tax thereto for the year.

The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period and for all periods presented is adjusted for events, such as bonus shares, other than the conversion of potential equity shares, that have changed the number of equity shares outstanding, without a corresponding change in resources. For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period is adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

4.18 Cash Flow Statement

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, where by profit / (loss) before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments.

For the year ended March 31, 2026

For the purpose of the Statement of Cash Flows, cash and cash equivalents as defined above, net of outstanding bank overdrafts as they are considered an integral part of cash management of the Company.

4.19 Segment Information

An operating segment is a component of the Company that engages in the business activities from which it may earn revenues and incur expenses, whose operating results are regularly reviewed by Company's Chief operating decision maker.

Revenue and expenses have been identified to segments on the basis of their relationship to the operating activities of the Segment. Revenue and expenses, which relate to the enterprise as a whole and are not allocable to Segments on a reasonable basis have been included under "Un-allocable".

Assets and liabilities have been identified to segments on the basis of their relationship to the operating activities of the Segment. Assets and liabilities, which relate to the enterprise as a whole and are not allocable to Segments on a reasonable basis have been included under "Un-allocable".

4A. Significant accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of the Company's financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the accompanying disclosures, as well as the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities affected in future period

In the process of applying the Company's accounting policies, management has made the following judgements/ estimates, which have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

i. Business Model Assessment

The Company from time to time enters into direct bilateral assignment deals, which qualify for de-recognition under Ind AS 109. Accordingly, the assessment of the Company's business model for managing its financial assets becomes a critical judgment.

Further, the Company also made an investment in the Government securities, and similar instruments in order to comply the liquidity ratio compliance as required by RBI pursuant to its master directions. The Company intends to hold these assets till maturity expects that any sale if any necessitated by requirements are likely to be infrequent and immaterial. Accordingly, the related assessment becomes a critical judgement to determine the business model for such financial assets under Ind AS.

ii. Fair value of financial instruments

The fair value of financial instruments is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction in the principal (or most advantageous) market at the measurement date under current market conditions (i.e., an exit price) regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. When the fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities recorded in the balance sheet cannot be derived from active markets, they are determined using a variety of valuation techniques that include the use of valuation models. The inputs to these models are taken from observable markets where possible, but where this is not feasible, estimation is required in establishing fair values. Judgements and estimates include considerations of liquidity and model inputs related to items such as credit risk (both own and counterparty), funding value adjustments, correlation and volatility.

iii. Impairment of financial asset

The measurement of impairment losses across all categories of financial assets requires judgement, in particular, the estimation of the amount and timing of future cash flows and collateral values when determining impairment losses and the assessment of a significant increase in credit risk. These estimates are driven by a number of factors, changes in which can result in different levels of allowances.

The Company's ECL calculations are outputs of complex models with a number of underlying assumptions regarding the choice of variable inputs and their interdependencies. Elements of the ECL models that are considered accounting estimates include:

- The Company's criteria for assessing if there has been a significant increase in credit risk and so allowances for financial assets should be measured on a LTECL basis and the qualitative assessment
- The segmentation of financial assets when their ECL is assessed on a collective basis
- Development of ECL models, including the various formulas and the choice of inputs
- Determination of temporary adjustments as qualitative adjustment or overlays based on broad range of forward-looking information as economic inputs

It has been the company policy to regularly review its models in the context of actual loss experience and adjust when necessary.

For the year ended March 31, 2026

iv. Leases

a. Determining the lease term of contracts with renewal and termination options – Company as lessee

The Company determines the lease term as the non-cancellable term of the lease, together with any periods covered by an option to extend the lease if it is reasonably certain to be exercised, or any periods covered by an option to terminate the lease, if it is reasonably certain not to be exercised. The Company applies judgement in evaluating whether it is reasonably certain whether or not to exercise the option to renew or terminate the lease. That is, it considers all relevant factors that create an economic incentive for it to exercise either the renewal or termination.

b. Estimating the incremental borrowing rate

The Company cannot readily determine the interest rate implicit in the lease, therefore, it uses its incremental borrowing rate (IBR) to measure lease liabilities. The IBR is the rate of interest that the Company would have to pay to for its borrowings.

v. Provisions and other contingent liabilities

When the Company can reliably measure the outflow of economic benefits in relation to a specific case and considers such outflows to be probable, the Company records a provision against the case. Where the probability of outflow is considered to be remote, or probable, but a reliable estimate cannot be made, a contingent liability is disclosed.

Given the subjectivity and uncertainty of determining the probability and amount of losses, the Company takes into account a number of factors including legal advice, the stage of the matter and historical evidence from similar incidents. Significant judgement is required to conclude on these estimates.

4B. New amendments issued but not effective

Ministry of Corporate Affairs (“MCA”) notifies new standards or amendments to the existing standards under Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules as issued from time to time. As at the date of authorisation of these financial statements, the Company has not applied the following new amendment to Ind AS that has been issued but is not yet effective:

Amendment to Ind AS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements

Where a covenant breach exists on or before the reporting date and, as a result, the liability becomes payable on demand on that date, the liability must be classified as current, even if the lender subsequently (i.e. after the reporting date but before approval of the financial statements) agrees not to demand payment.

The Company does not expect that the adoption of this amendment to have any material impact on the financial statements of the Company in future periods. However, in case of breach of covenants in future, the liability for long-term borrowings will be classified as current and will become repayable on demand.

Note : 36 RETIREMENT BENEFIT (Contd.)

Notes:

- The above sensitivity analysis are based on change in an assumption which is holding all the other assumptions constant. In practice, this is unlikely to occur, and changes in some assumptions may be correlated. When calculating the sensitivity of defined benefit obligation to significant actuarial assumptions the same method of present value of defined benefit obligations calculated with Projected unit cost method at the end of the reporting period has been applied while calculating defined benefit liability recognised in the balance sheet.
- The method and type of assumptions used in preparing the sensitivity analysis does not change as compared to the prior period.

Description of Risk exposures

Valuations are performed on certain basic set of pre-determined assumptions and other regulatory framework which may vary over time. Thus, the Company is exposed to various risks in providing the above gratuity benefit which are as follows:

(a) Interest Rate risk: The plan exposes the company to the risk of fall in interest rates . A fall in interest rates will result in an increase in the ultimate cost of providing the above benefit and will thus result in an increase in the value of the liability (as shown in financial statements).

(b) Liquidity Risk: This is the risk that the company is not able to meet the short-term gratuity pay-outs. This may arise due to non-availability of enough cash/cash equivalents to meet the liabilities or holding of illiquid assets not being sold in time.

(c) Salary Escalation Risk: The present value of the defined benefit plan is calculated with the assumption of salary increase rate of plan participants in future. Deviation in the rate of increase of salary in future for plan participants from the rate of increase in salary used to determine the present value of obligation will have a bearing on the plan's liability.

(d) Demographic Risk: The Company has used certain mortality and attrition assumptions in valuation of the liability. The Company is exposed to the risk of actual experience turning out to be worse compared to the assumption.

(e) Regulatory Risk: Gratuity benefit is paid in accordance with the requirements of the Payment of Gratuity Act,1972 (as amended from time to time). There is a risk of change in regulations requiring higher gratuity pay-outs.

(f) Asset Liability Mismatching or Market Risk: The duration of the liability is longer compared to duration of assets, exposing the Company to market risk for volatilities/fall in interest rate.

(g) Investment Risk: The probability or likelihood of occurrence of losses relative to the expected return on a particular investment.

The key elements of the ECL are summarised below:

42.2.1.4(a) PD

The Probability of Default is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon. A default may only happen at a certain time over the assessed period, if the facility has not been previously derecognised and is still in the portfolio. While computing probability of default, significant outlier events are suitably handled to ensure it does not skew the outcomes.

A 12M marginal PD is computed by creating cohorts of accounts starting in Stage 1 at the beginning of the year and subsequently moving to Stage 3 at any point in time during the year.

A conditional average probability of default is computed by taking cohort of which were in Stage 2 at the beginning the year and subsequently moved to Stage 3 anytime in each subsequent year.

42.2.1.4(b) EAD

The Exposure at Default is an estimate of the exposure at a future default date (in case of Stage 1 and Stage 2), taking into account expected changes in the exposure after the reporting date, including repayments of principal and interest, whether scheduled by contract or otherwise, expected drawdowns on committed facilities, and accrued interest from missed payments. In case of Stage 3 loans EAD represents exposure when the default occurred.

Note : 42 CAPITAL MANAGEMENT (Contd.)

42.2.1.4(c) LGD

The Loss Given Default is an estimate of the loss arising in the case where a default occurs at a given time. It is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the lender would expect to receive, including from the realisation of any collateral. It is usually expressed as a percentage of the EAD. The recoveries are discounted back to the default date using customer IRR. This present value of recovery is used for LGD computation. A recovery rate (RR) computed as the ratio of present value of recovery to the EAD (1 – RR), gives the LGD.

42.2.1.5 Mechanics of the ECL method

Stage 1:

All loans (other than purchased credit impaired asset) are categorised as Stage 1 on initial recognition. The 12 months ECL is calculated as the portion of LTECLs that represent the ECLs that result from default events on a financial instrument that are possible within the 12 months after the reporting date. The Company calculates the 12 months ECL allowance based on the expectation of a default occurring in the 12 months following the reporting date. These expected 12-month default probabilities are applied to EAD and multiplied by the expected LGD and discounted by an approximation to the original EIR.

Stage 2:

Loans which are past due for more than 30 days are categorised as Stage 2. When a loan has shown a significant increase in credit risk since origination, the Company records an allowance for the LTECLs PDs and LGDs are estimated over the lifetime of the instrument. The expected cash shortfalls are discounted by an approximation to the original EIR.

Stage 3:

Loans which are past due for more than 90 days are categorised as Stage 3. For loans considered credit-impaired, the Company recognises the lifetime expected credit losses for these loans. The method is similar to that for Stage 2 assets, with the PD set at 100%

Restructured loans are categorised as Stage 3 on the date of restructuring and remain so for a period of one year. Post this, regular staging criteria applies.

Loans which have been renegotiated or modified in accordance with RBI Notifications for COVID-19 has been classified as Stage 2 due to significant increase in credit risk as on the date of such re-negotiation or modification.

The Post Implementation Staging of Loans restructured under Covid Resolution framework shall follow the Days Past Due of respective loan agreements.

In respect of new lending products, where historical information is not available, the company follows simplified matrix approach for determining impairment allowance based on industry practise. These loans constitute around 14% of the total loan book.

Loan Movement across stages during the year is given in a note 9.1.

Loan commitment:

When estimating LTECLs for undrawn loan commitments, the Company estimates the expected portion of the loan commitment that will be drawn down over its expected life. The ECL is then based on the present value of the expected shortfalls in cash flows if the loan is drawn down. The expected cash shortfalls are discounted at an approximation to the expected EIR on the loan. For an undrawn loan commitment, ECLs are calculated and presented under provisions.

Other Financial assets:

The Company follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on other financial assets. The application of simplified approach does not require the Company to track changes in credit risk and calculated on case-by-case approach, taking into consideration different recovery scenarios.

42.2.1.6 Incorporation of forward-looking statements in ECL model

The Company considers a broad range of forward-looking information with reference to external forecasts of economic parameters such as GDP growth, Inflation, Government Expenditure etc., as considered relevant so as to determine the impact of macro-economic factors on the Company's ECL estimates.

The inputs and models used for calculating ECLs are recalibrated periodically through the use of available incremental and recent information. Further, internal estimates of PD, LGD rates used in the ECL model may not always capture all the characteristics of the market / external environment as at the date of the financial statements. To reflect this, qualitative adjustments or overlays are made as temporary adjustments to reflect the emerging risks reasonably.

Annual data from 2019 to 2028 (including forecasts for 4 years) were obtained from World Economic Outlook, October 2025 published by International Monetary Fund (IMF). IMF provides historical and forecasted data for important economic indicators country-wise. The data provided for India is used for the analysis. Macro variables that were compared against default rates at segment level to determine the key variables having correlation with the default rates using appropriate statistical techniques. Vasicek model has been incorporated to find the Point in Time (PIT) PD. The company has formulated the methodology for creation of macro-economic scenarios under the premise of economic baseline, upside and downside condition. A final PIT PD is arrived as the scenario weighted PIT PD under different macroeconomic scenarios.

42.2.2 Market Risk

Market Risk is the possibility of loss arising from changes in the value of a financial instrument as a result of changes in market variables such as interest rates, exchange rates. The company's exposure to market risk is a function of asset liability management and interest rate sensitivity assessment. The company is exposed to interest rate risk and liquidity risk, if the same is not managed properly. The company continuously monitors these risks and manages them through appropriate risk limits. The Asset Liability Management Committee (ALCO) reviews market-related trends and risks and adopts various strategies related to assets and liabilities, in line with the company's risk management framework. ALCO activities are in turn monitored and reviewed by a board sub-committee. In addition, the company has put in an Asset Liability Management (ALM) support group which meets frequently to review the liquidity position of the company.

42.2.2.1 Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is defined as the risk that the Company will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities that are settled by delivering cash or another financial asset. Liquidity risk arises because of the possibility that the Company might be unable to meet its payment obligations when they fall due as a result of mismatches in the timing of the cash flows under both normal and stress circumstances. Such scenarios could occur when funding needed for illiquid asset positions is not available to the Company on acceptable terms. To limit this risk, management has arranged for diversified funding sources and adopted a policy of availing funding in line with the tenor and repayment pattern of its receivables and monitors future cash flows and liquidity on a daily basis. The Company has developed internal control processes and contingency plans for managing liquidity risk. This incorporates an assessment of expected cash flows and the availability of unencumbered receivables which could be used to secure funding by way of assignment if required. The Company also has lines of credit that it can access to meet liquidity needs. These are reviewed by the Asset Liability Committee (ALCO) on a monthly basis. The ALCO provides strategic direction and guidance on liquidity risk management. A sub-committee of the ALCO, comprising members from the Treasury and Risk functions, monitor liquidity risks on a weekly basis and decisions are taken on the funding plan and levels of investible surplus, from the ALM perspective. This sets the boundaries for daily cash flow management.

Analysis of Financial liabilities by remaining contractual maturities given in note -47.

42.2.2.2 Interest Rate Risk

The Company being in the business of lending raises money from diversified sources like market borrowings, term Loan from banks and financial institutions, foreign currency borrowings etc. Financial assets and liabilities constitute significant portion, changes in market interest rates can adversely affect the financial condition. The fluctuations in interest rates can be due to internal and external factors. Internal factors include the composition of assets and liabilities across maturities, existing rates and re-pricing of various sources of borrowings. External factors include macro-economic developments, competitive pressures, regulatory developments and global factors. The movement in interest rates (upward / downward) will impact the Net Interest Income depending upon rate sensitivity of the asset or liability. The company uses traditional gap analysis report to determine the vulnerability to movements in interest rates. The Gap is the difference between Rate Sensitive Assets (RSA) and Rate Sensitive Liabilities (RSL) for each time bucket. A positive gap indicates that the company can benefit from rising interest rates while a negative gap indicates that the company can benefit from declining interest rates. Based on market conditions, the company enters into interest rate swap to mitigate interest rate risk.

42.2.2.3 Foreign Currency Risk

Foreign currency risk for the Company arises mainly on account of foreign currency borrowings. The Company manages this foreign currency risk by entering into derivative contracts such as cross currency swaps or forward contracts. When such a derivative is entered into for the purpose of hedging, the Company negotiates the terms of those derivatives to match with the terms of the underlying exposure. These derivative financial instruments are valued based on quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets or inputs that are directly or indirectly observable in market place.

42.2.2.4 Hedging Policy

The Company's policy is to fully hedge its foreign currency borrowings at the time of drawdown and remain so till repayment and hence the hedge ratio is 1:1.

Note 44.2 - Fair value hierarchy

The fair value of the financial assets and liabilities is included at the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced or liquidation sale. The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair values of financial assets or liabilities disclosed under level 2 category.

- i) The fair value of loans have been estimated by discounting expected future cash flows using discount rate equal to the rate near to the reporting date of the comparable product.
- ii) The fair value of debt securities, borrowings other than debt securities and subordinated liabilities have been estimated by discounting expected future cash flows using discounting rate equal to the rate near to reporting date based on comparable rate / market observable data.
- iii) Derivatives are fair valued using observable inputs / rates.
- iv) The fair value of investments in Government securities/STRIPS/Treasury Bills are derived from rate equal to the rate near to the reporting date of the comparable product.
- v) Fair value of investment property is calculated based on valuation given by external independent valuer and also refer note 13 for sensitivity analysis.

XIV) LIQUIDITY RISK (Contd.)

(vi) Institutional set-up for liquidity risk management:

Liquidity risk is defined as the risk that the Company will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities that are settled by delivering cash or another financial asset. Liquidity risk arises because of the possibility that the Company might be unable to meet its payment obligations when they fall due as a result of mismatches in the timing of the cash flows under both normal and stress circumstances. Such scenarios could occur when funding needed for illiquid asset positions is not available to the Company on acceptable terms. To limit this risk, management has arranged for diversified funding sources and adopted a policy of availing funding in line with the tenor and repayment pattern of its receivables and monitors future cash flows and liquidity on a daily basis. The Company has developed internal control processes and contingency plans for managing liquidity risk. This incorporates an assessment of expected cash flows and the availability of unencumbered receivables which could be used to secure funding by way of assignment if required. The Company also has lines of credit that it can access to meet liquidity needs. These are reviewed by the Asset Liability Committee (ALCO) on a monthly basis. The ALCO provides strategic direction and guidance on liquidity risk management. A sub-committee of the ALCO, comprising members from the Treasury and Risk functions, monitor liquidity risks on a weekly basis and decisions are taken on the funding plan and levels of investible surplus, from the ALM perspective. This sets the boundaries for daily cash flow management.

Notes:

- 1) A "Significant Counterparty" is defined as a single counterparty or group of connected or affiliated counterparties accounting in aggregate for more than 1% of NBFC-NDSI's total liabilities.

- 4) Total Liabilities has been computed as Total Assets less Equity share capital less Reserve & Surplus and computed basis extant regulatory ALM guidelines.
- 5) Commercial Paper for stock ratio is the principal portion of Gross outstanding (i.e.Maturity amount).
- 6) Other Short-term Liabilities has been computed as Total Short-term Liabilities less debt securities, Borrowings (other than debt securities) and subordinated liabilities (Original maturity of less than one year), basis extant regulatory ALM guidelines.
- 7) Public Funds = Total Borrowings as computed above.

XXXI) LIQUIDITY COVERAGE RATIO

The Liquidity Coverage Ratio (LCR) is a key compliance requirement for a resilient and stable financial sector. Its objective is the promotion of short-term resilience of the liquidity risk profile of financial institutions by ensuring that it has sufficient High Quality Liquid Assets (HQLA) to survive a significant stress scenario lasting for one month. The Liquidity Coverage Ratio is expected to improve the financial sector's ability to absorb shocks arising from financial and economic stress, whatever the source, thus reducing the risk of spill over from the financial sector to the real economy.

Liquidity Management of the company is supervised by the Asset Liability Committee. The management is of the view that the company has in place robust processes to monitor and manage liquidity risks and sufficient liquidity cover to meet its likely future short-term requirements.

The company has a diversified mix of borrowings with respect to the source, type of instrument, tenor and nature of security. The composition of borrowings consists of Bank term loans, Market Borrowings and Securitization. The Asset Liability Committee constantly reviews and monitors the funding mix and ensures the optimum mix of funds based on the cash flow requirements, market conditions and keeping the interest rate view in consideration. Additionally, the Company has lines of credit that it can access to meet liquidity needs.

These are reviewed by the Asset Liability Committee (ALCO) on a monthly basis. The Asset Liability Committee provides strategic direction and guidance on liquidity risk management. A sub-committee of the Asset Liability Committee, comprising members from the Treasury and Risk functions, monitor liquidity risks on a weekly basis and decisions are taken on the funding plan and levels of investible surplus, from the Asset Liability Management perspective. This sets the boundaries for daily cash flow management.

In line with RBI regulations, the cash outflows and inflows have been stressed by 115% and 75% of their respective original values for computing LCR. The key drivers on the inflow side are the expected collections from the performing assets of the company and on the outflow side the scheduled maturities. The High-Quality Liquid Assets are entirely held in in Level 1 assets with no haircut.

The LCR has been consistently maintained well over the regulatory threshold throughout the year. The company has Board approved internal risk thresholds for LCR which is higher than the regulatory requirement.

All foreign currency borrowings are fully hedged both for principal and interest at the time of drawal of each loan and hence do not run the risk of currency mismatch.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Members of Cholamandalam Investment and Finance Company Limited

Report on the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Opinion

1. We have audited the accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements of Cholamandalam Investment and Finance Company Limited ('the Holding Company' or 'the Parent' or 'the Company') and its subsidiaries (the parent and its subsidiaries together referred to as 'the Group'), its associate and joint ventures (including jointly controlled entities), which comprise the Consolidated Balance Sheet as at 31 March 2026 and the Consolidated Statement of Profit (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Consolidated Statement of Changes in Equity and Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows for the year ended on that date, and notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements, including a summary of material accounting policies and other explanatory information ('the Consolidated Financial Statements').
2. In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us and based on the consideration of reports of other auditors on separate financial statements of such subsidiaries, associate and joint ventures as were audited by the other auditors, the aforesaid Consolidated Financial Statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act') in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015, as amended, ('Ind AS') and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the Consolidated State of Affairs of the Group, its associate and joint ventures as at 31 March 2026, and its Consolidated Profit And Other Comprehensive Income, Consolidated Changes in Equity and its Consolidated Cash Flows for the year ended on that date.

Basis for Opinion

3. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing ('SAs') specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those SAs are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group, its associate and joint ventures in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('ICAI') together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements under the provisions of the Act, and the rules thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained along with the consideration of audit reports of the other auditors referred to in the 'Other Matters' paragraph below is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion on the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Key audit matters

4. Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements of the current year. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matter	How the matter was addressed in our audit
Assessment of impairment loss allowance based on expected credit loss (ECL) on Loans (Refer Note 11 of the Consolidated financial statements) The loan balances towards vehicle finance, home loans, loans against property, and other loans aggregating to ₹ 2,22,114.81 crores and the associated impairment allowances aggregating to ₹ 4,371.09 crores are significant to the consolidated financial statements and involves judgement around the determination of the impairment allowance in line with the requirements of the Ind AS 109 "Financial Instruments". Impairment allowances represent management's estimate of the losses incurred within the loan portfolios at the balance sheet date and are inherently judgmental. Impairment, based on ECL model, is calculated using main variables, viz. 'Staging', 'Exposure at Default', 'Probability of Default' and 'Loss Given Default' as specified under Ind AS 109. Quantitative factors like days past due, behaviour of the portfolio, historical losses incurred on defaults and macro- economic data points identified by the Management's expert and qualitative factors like nature of the underlying loan, deterioration in credit quality, correlation of macro-economic variables to determine expected losses, uncertainty over realisability of security, judgement in relation to management overlays and related Reserve Bank of India (RBI)	The audit procedures performed by us to assess appropriateness of the impairment allowance based on ECL on loans included the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• We understood and evaluated the design and tested the operating effectiveness of the key controls put in place by the management over: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i. the assumptions used in the calculation of ECL and its various aspects such as determination of Probability of Default, Loss Given Default, Exposure at Default, Staging of Loans, etc.</li> <li>ii. the completeness and accuracy of source data used by the Management in the ECL computation; and</li> <li>iii. ECL computations for their reasonableness</li> </ul> </li> <li>• We, along with the assistance of the auditor's IT expert, verified the appropriateness of methodology and models used by the Company and reasonableness of the assumptions used within the computation process to estimate the impairment provision.</li> <li>• We test-checked the completeness and accuracy of source data used.</li> <li>• We recomputed the impairment provision for a sample of loans across the loan portfolio to verify the arithmetical accuracy and compliance with the requirements of Ind AS 109.</li> <li>• We evaluated the reasonableness of the judgement involved in management overlays that form part of the impairment provision, and the related approvals.</li> </ul>

Key audit matter	How the matter was addressed in our audit
guidelines, to the extent applicable, etc. have been taken into account in the ECL computation. Given the inherent judgmental nature and the complexity of model involved, we determined this to be a Key Audit Matter.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Reviewed the Company's accounting policies for estimation of Expected Credit Loss on loans and assessing compliance with the policies in terms of Ind AS 109.</li> <li>• We evaluated the adequacy of presentation and disclosures in relation to impairment loss allowance in the consolidated financial statements</li> </ul>
Audit in an Information Technology (IT) enabled environment – including considerations on exceptions identified in IT Environment. The IT environment of the entity involves a few independent and inter-dependent IT systems used in the operations of the entity for processing and recording of the business transactions. As a result, there is a high degree of reliance and dependency on such IT systems for the financial reporting process of the entity. Appropriate IT general controls and IT application controls are required to ensure that such IT systems can process the data as required, completely, accurately, and consistently for reliable financial reporting. We have identified certain key IT applications and the related IT infrastructure (herein after referred to as “In-scope IT systems”), which have an impact on the financial reporting process and the related controls as a key audit matter because of the increased level of automation; a few systems being used by the entity for processing financial transactions; the complexity of the IT architecture; and its impact on the financial records and financial reporting process of the entity	Our audit procedures with respect to this matter included the following: In assessing the controls over the IT systems, we have involved our Technology Assurance specialists to obtain an understanding of the IT environment, IT infrastructure and IT systems. With respect to the “In-scope IT systems” identified as relevant to the audit of the consolidated financial statements and financial reporting process of the entity, we have evaluated and tested relevant IT general controls or relied upon service auditor's report, where applicable. On such “In-scope IT systems”, we have covered the key IT general controls with respect to the following domains: Program change management, which includes that program changes are moved to the production environment as per defined procedures and relevant segregation of environment is ensured. User access management, which includes user access provisioning, de-provisioning, access review, password management, sensitive access rights and segregation of duties to ensure that privileged access to applications, operating system and databases in the production environment were granted only to authorized personnel. Other areas that were assessed under the IT control environment included backup management, business continuity and disaster recovery, incident management, batch processing and monitoring, cybersecurity controls, end user computing and physical security and datacentre controls. We have also evaluated the design and tested the operating effectiveness of key IT application controls within key business processes, which included testing automated calculations, automated accounting procedures, system interfaces, system reconciliation controls and key system generated reports, as applicable. Where control deficiencies have been identified, we have tested a combination of compensating controls, remediated controls and/or performed alternative audit procedures, where necessary

12. Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Consolidated Financial Statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Consolidated Financial Statements.

- 13.1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Consolidated Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- 13.2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Holding Company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to the Consolidated Financial Statements and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- 13.3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Management.
- 13.4. Conclude on the appropriateness of Management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Group and its associate and joint venture entities to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Consolidated Financial Statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group and its associate and joint venture to cease to continue as a going concern.
- 13.5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the Consolidated Financial Statements, including the disclosures, and whether the Consolidated Financial Statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- 13.6. Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group and its associate and joint ventures to express an opinion on the Consolidated Financial Statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of financial statements of such entities included in the Consolidated Financial Statements of which we are the independent auditors. For the other entities included in the Consolidated Financial Statements, which have been audited by other auditors, such other auditors remain responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audits carried out by them. 14. We communicate with those charged with governance of the Holding Company and such other entities included in the Consolidated Financial Statements of which we are the independent auditors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
15. We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.
16. From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements of the current year and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

1. Corporate Information

Cholamandalam Investment and Finance Company Limited ("the Company") (CIN L65993TN1978PLC007576) is a public limited Company domiciled in India and the equity shares of the Company is listed on Bombay Stock Exchange and National Stock Exchange. The Company is registered with Reserve Bank of India as an NBFC-Investment and Credit Company and is classified as an NBFC in Upper Layer (NBFC-UL) under the Scale Based Regulatory Framework for NBFCs. The Company and its subsidiaries viz. Cholamandalam Securities Limited and Cholamandalam Leasing Limited (together hereinafter referred to as "Group"). The Group is one of the premier diversified financial services companies in India, engaged in providing vehicle finance, home loans, Loan against property, SME loans, unsecured loans, Gold loan, business of broking and distribution of financial products.

2.1 Basis of Consolidation

The Consolidated Ind AS financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2026 have been prepared in all material aspects with Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) notified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the "Act") [Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 (as amended from time to time)] and other relevant provisions of the Act.

The Consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Ind AS. The Consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for

- a) certain financial assets, liabilities (including derivative instruments) and share based payments - measured at fair value
- b) defined benefit plans – plan assets measured at fair value

The Consolidated financial statements are presented in Indian Rupees (₹) (functional currency) and all values are rounded to the nearest crores, except when otherwise indicated.

The Consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company, its Subsidiaries (being the entity that it controls) and its Associate and Joint Venture as at March 31, 2026. Control is evidenced when the Group is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee.

Generally, there is a presumption that a majority of voting rights result in control. To support this presumption and when the Group has less than a majority of the voting or similar rights of an investee, the Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether it has power over an investee, including:

- The contractual arrangement with the other vote holders of the investee
- Rights arising from other contractual arrangements
- The Group's voting rights and potential voting rights
- The size of the Group's holding of voting rights relative to the size and dispersion of the holdings of the other voting rights holders

The Group re-assesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control. Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Group obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the Group loses control of the subsidiary. Assets, liabilities, income and expenses of a subsidiary acquired or disposed of during the period are included in the Consolidated financial statements from the date the Group gains control until the date the Group ceases to control the subsidiary.

Consolidated financial statements are prepared using uniform accounting policies for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances. If a member of the Group uses accounting policies other than those adopted in the Consolidated financial statements for like transactions and events in similar circumstances, appropriate adjustments are made to that Group member's financial statements in preparing the Consolidated financial statements to ensure conformity with the Group's accounting policies.

The financial statements of all entities used for the purpose of consolidation are drawn up to same reporting date as that of the parent company, i.e., year ended on March 31, 2026.

Consolidation procedure for subsidiaries:

- (a) Combine like items of assets, liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows of the parent with those of its subsidiaries. For this purpose, income and expenses of the subsidiary are based on the amounts of the assets and liabilities recognised in the Consolidated financial statements at the acquisition date.
- (b) Offset (eliminate) the carrying amount of the parent's investment in each subsidiary and the parent's portion of equity of each subsidiary. Business combinations policy explains the accounting for any related goodwill.
- (c) Eliminate in full intra-group assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between entities of the Group (profits or losses resulting from intra-group transactions that are recognised in assets, such as inventory and fixed assets, are eliminated in full). Intra-group losses may indicate an impairment that requires recognition in the Consolidated financial statements. Ind AS 12 Income Taxes applies to temporary differences that arise from the elimination of profits and losses resulting from intragroup transactions.

Profit or loss and each component of OCI are attributed to the equity holders of the parent of the Group and to the non-controlling interests, even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

For the year ended March 31, 2026

When necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies in line with the Group's accounting policies. All intra-group assets, liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full on consolidation.

If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it:

- Derecognises the assets (including goodwill) and liabilities of the subsidiary
- Derecognises the carrying amount of any non-controlling interests
- Derecognises the cumulative translation differences recorded in equity
- Recognises the fair value of the consideration received
- Recognises the fair value of any investment retained
- Recognises any surplus or deficit in profit or loss

Reclassifies the parent's share of components previously recognised in OCI to profit or loss or retained earnings, as appropriate, as would be required if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities

A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction.

3A Particulars of consolidation

The financial statements of the following subsidiaries/ associates/joint venture (all incorporated in India) have been considered for consolidation:

Name of the Company	Percentage of Voting	Power as on
	March 31, 2026	March 31, 2025
Cholamandalam Securities Limited (CSEC)	92.00%	92.00%
Cholamandalam Leasing Limited (CLL) (Formerly known as Cholamandalam Home Finance Limited)	100.00%	100.00%
Vishvakarma Payments Private Limited	21.00%	21.00%
Payswiff Technologies Private Limited*	74.63%	74.63%
Chola Foundation	50.00%	50.00%

* Even though, the Group holds 74.63% of the paid up equity capital of Payswiff Technologies Private Limited (Payswiff), however, in view of founder reserved matters and dispute resolution mechanism envisaged in the shareholder agreement executed between the Group and founders of Payswiff, the Group is considered to have joint control over the entity as per Ind AS 28 read with IND AS 110. Hence it is classified as investment in Joint venture

** Chola Foundation (Public Trust) is jointly controlled entity, managed by Cholamandalam Investment and

Finance Company Limited, Tube Investments of India Limited and CG Power and Industrial Solutions Limited for promoting CSR activities. The trust has four trustees of which two is from Cholamandalam Investment and Finance Company Limited and one each from other two entities.

The earnings of the trust is consolidated with Cholamandalam Investment and Finance Company Limited as jointly controlled entity representing a share of 50%

3B Investment in Associates/Joint Venture

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee.

A Joint venture is a joint arrangement whereby parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the arrangement.

The Group's investments in its associates & joint ventures are accounted for using the equity method. Under the equity method, the investment in associates & joint ventures is initially recognised at cost. The carrying amount of the investment is adjusted to recognise changes in the Group's share of net assets of the associates & joint ventures since the acquisition date. Goodwill relating to the associates & joint ventures is included in the carrying amount of the investment and is not tested for impairment individually.

The statement of profit and loss reflects the Group's share of the results of operations of the associates & joint ventures. Any change in OCI of those investees is presented as part of the Group's OCI. In addition, when there has been a change recognised directly in the equity of the associates & joint ventures, the Group recognises its share of any changes, when applicable, in the statement of changes in equity. Unrealised gains and losses resulting from transactions between the Group and the associates & joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the interest in the associates & joint ventures.

If Company's share of losses of an associates & joint ventures equal or exceeds its interest in the associates & joint ventures (which includes any long-term interest that, in substance, form part of the Group's net investment in the associates), the Company discontinues recognising its share of further losses. Additional losses are recognised only to the extent that the Group has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the associates. If the associates & joint ventures subsequently reports profits, the Company resumes recognising its share of those profits only after its share of the profits equals the share of losses not recognised.

The aggregate of the Group's share of profit or loss of associates & joint ventures is shown on the face of the statement of profit and loss.

The financial statements of the associates & joint ventures are prepared for the same reporting period as the Group.

For the year ended March 31, 2026

When necessary, adjustments are made to bring the accounting policies in line with those of the Group.

After application of the equity method, the Group determines whether it is necessary to recognise an impairment loss on its investment in its associates & joint ventures. At each reporting date, the Group determines whether there is objective evidence that the investment in the associates & joint ventures is impaired. If there is such evidence, the Group calculates the amount of impairment as the difference between the recoverable amount of the associates & joint ventures and its carrying value, and then recognises the impairment loss with respect to the Group's investment in associates & joint ventures.

Upon loss of significant influence over the associates the Group measures and recognises any retained investment at its fair value. Any difference between the carrying amount of the associates upon loss of significant influence and the fair value of the retained investment and proceeds from disposal is recognised in profit or loss.

4. Presentation of financial statements

Financial assets and financial liabilities are generally reported gross in the balance sheet. They are only offset and reported net when, in addition to having an unconditional legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts without being contingent on a future event, the parties also intend to settle on a net basis in all of the following circumstances:

- normal course of business
- event of default
- event of insolvency or bankruptcy of the Group and/or its counterparties

5. Material accounting policies of the Group

5.1 Loans – initial recognition

5.1.1 Date of recognition

Financial assets and liabilities, with the exception of loans, debt securities, and borrowings are initially recognised on the trade date, i.e., the date that the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Loans are recognised when fund transfers are initiated to the customers' account or cheques for disbursement have been prepared by the Group (as per the terms of the agreement with the borrowers). The Group recognises debt securities and borrowings when funds reach the Group.

5.1.2 Initial measurement of financial instruments

All financial instruments are recognised initially at fair value, including transaction costs that are attributable to the acquisition of financial instrument, except in the case of financial instruments which are FVTPL (Fair value through profit and loss), where the transaction costs are charged to the statement of profit and loss.

5.1.3 Measurement categories of Loans

The Group classifies all its Loans at Amortised cost as the business model is to hold them to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the loans give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely repayments of principal and interest.

5.1.4 Modification of Loans

Modification of a loan occurs when the contractual terms governing its cash flows are renegotiated or otherwise modified between the initial recognition and maturity of the financial asset. A modification affects the amount and/or timing of the contractual cash flows either immediately or at a future date. The Group renegotiates loans to customers in financial difficulty to maximise collection and minimise the risk of default. Modification of loan terms is granted in cases where although the borrower made all reasonable efforts to pay under the original contractual terms, there is a risk of default or default has already happened and the borrower is expected to be able to meet the revised terms. The revised terms in most of the cases include an extension of the maturity of the loan, changes to the timing of the cash flows of the loan (principal and interest repayment). When a loan is modified the Group assesses whether this modification results in derecognition. In accordance with the Group's policy, a modification results in derecognition when it gives rise to substantially different terms. Where a modification does not lead to derecognition, the Group calculates the modification gain/loss comparing the gross carrying amount before and after the modification (excluding the ECL allowance).

5.1.5 Derecognition of Loans

Loan (or, where applicable, a part of a loan or part of a group of similar loans) is derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the loan has expired. The Group also derecognises the loan if it has both transferred the loan and the transfer qualifies for derecognition.

Loan is transferred only if, either:

- the Group has transferred its contractual rights to receive cash flows from the loan, Or;
- has retained the rights to the cash flows but has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass-through' arrangement.

A transfer qualifies for derecognition if either:

- the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the loan, Or;
- has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the loan but has transferred control of the loan.

The Group considers control to be transferred if and only if, the transferee has the practical ability to sell the loan in its entirety to an unrelated third party and is able to exercise that ability unilaterally and without imposing additional restrictions on the transfer.

In case of loan transfers which qualify for derecognition, any difference between the proceeds received on such sale and the carrying value of the transferred asset is recognised as gain or loss on de-recognition of such loan previously carried under amortised cost category. The resulting interest only strip initially is recognised at Fair Value Through Profit or Loss and re-assessed at the end of every reporting period.

In case of loan transfers which do not qualify for derecognition, the loan continues to be recognised only to the extent of the Group's continuing involvement, in which case, the Group also recognises an associated liability. The transferred loan and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Group has retained.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred loan is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration the Group could be required to pay.

5.1.6 Undrawn loan commitments

Undrawn loan commitments are commitments under which, over the duration of the commitment, the Group is required to provide a loan with pre-specified terms to the customer. The nominal contractual value of undrawn loan commitments, where the loan agreed to be provided is on market terms, are not recorded in the balance sheet. The nominal values of these commitments are disclosed in notes.

5.1.7 Loan write-offs

Loans are written off either partially or in their entirety only when the Group has no reasonable expectation of recovery. If the amount to be written off is greater than the accumulated loss allowance, the difference is recorded as an expense in the period of write off.

5.2 Impairment of Loans

5.2.1 Expected Credit Loss (ECL)

The Group records allowance ECL for all loans measured at amortised cost, together with loan commitments. ECL is the expected cash shortfall discounted at an approximation to the EIR. A cash shortfall is the difference between the cash flows that are due to an entity in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the entity expects to receive.  $(ECL = PD * EAD * LGD)$

PD: The Probability of Default is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon. A default may only happen at a certain time over the assessed period if the facility has not been previously derecognised and is still in the portfolio.

EAD: The Exposure at Default is an estimate of the exposure at a future default date (in case of Stage 1 and Stage 2), taking into account expected changes in the exposure after the reporting date, including repayments of principal and interest, whether scheduled by contract or otherwise, expected drawdowns on committed facilities, and accrued interest from missed payments. In case of Stage 3 loans EAD represents exposure when the default first occurred.

LGD: The Loss Given Default is an estimate of the loss arising in the case where a default occurs at a given time. It is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the lender would expect to receive, including from the realisation of any collateral. It is usually expressed as a percentage of the EAD.

The ECL allowance is based on the credit losses expected to arise over the life of the asset (the lifetime expected credit loss or LTECL), unless there has been no significant increase in credit risk since origination, in which case, the allowance is based on the 12 months' expected credit loss (12mECL).

The 12mECL is the portion of LTECLs that represent the ECLs that result from default events on a loan that are possible within the 12 months after the reporting date.

Both LTECLs and 12mECLs are calculated on a collective basis, for each category of loan.

The Group has established a policy to perform an assessment, at the end of each reporting period, of whether a loan's credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition, by considering the change in the risk of default occurring over the remaining life of the financial instrument.

Based on the above process, the Group categorises its loans into Stage 1, Stage 2 and Stage 3, as described below:

Stage 1: When loans are first recognised, the Group recognises an allowance based on 12mECLs. Stage 1 loans also include facilities where the credit risk has improved and the loan has been reclassified from Stage 2 or Stage 3.

Stage 2: When a loan has shown a significant increase in credit risk since origination, the Group records an allowance for the LTECLs. Stage 2 loans also include facilities, where the credit risk has improved and the loan has been reclassified from Stage 3.

Stage 3: Loans considered credit impaired. The Group records an allowance for the LTECLs.

Impairment losses and releases are accounted for and disclosed separately from modification losses or gains that are accounted for as an adjustment of the financial asset's gross carrying value.

5.2.2 Loan commitment:

When estimating LTECLs for undrawn loan commitments, the Group estimates the expected portion of the loan commitment that will be drawn down over its expected life. The ECL is then based on the present value of the expected shortfalls in cash flows if the loan is drawn down. The expected cash shortfalls are discounted at an approximation to the expected EIR on the loan. For an undrawn loan commitment, ECLs are calculated and presented under provisions.

5.2.3 Forward looking information

The Group considers a broad range of forward-looking information with reference to external forecasts of economic parameters such as GDP growth, unemployment rates etc., as considered relevant so as to determine the impact of macro-economic factors on the Group's ECL estimates.

The inputs and models used for calculating ECLs are recalibrated periodically through the use of available incremental and recent information. Further, internal estimates of PD, LGD rates used in the ECL model may not always capture all the characteristics of the market / external environment as at the date of the financial statements. To reflect this, qualitative adjustments or overlays are made as temporary adjustments to reflect the emerging risks reasonably.

5.2.4 Collateral repossessed

The Group generally does not use the assets repossessed for the internal operations. The underlying loans in respect of which collaterals have been repossessed with an intention to realize by way of sale are considered as Stage 3 assets and the ECL allowance is determined based on the estimated net realisable value of the repossessed asset. Any surplus funds are returned to the borrower and accordingly collateral repossessed are not recorded on the balance sheet and not treated as non-current assets held for sale.

5.2.5 Restructured, rescheduled, and modified loans

The Group sometimes makes concessions or modifications to the original terms of loans such as changing the instalment value or changing the tenor of the loan, as a response to the borrower's request.

When the loan has been renegotiated or modified but not derecognised, the Group also reassesses whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk. The Group also considers whether the assets should be classified as Stage 3. Once an asset has been classified as restructured, it will remain restructured for a period of year from the date on which it has been restructured.

Loans which have been renegotiated or modified in accordance with RBI Notifications (including extensions granted) - RBI/2020-21/16 DOR.No.BP. BC/3/21.04.048/2020-21- Resolution Framework for COVID-19 related Stress and RBI/2020-21/17 DOR.No.BP. BC/4/21.04.048/2020-21- Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSME) sector – Restructuring of Advances, have been classified as Stage 2 due to significant increase in credit risk.

5.3 Loans – Revenue recognition

Interest income on loans measured at amortised cost is recorded using the effective interest rate ('EIR') method. The EIR is the rate that discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the loan to the gross carrying amount of the loan. For credit-impaired loans, interest income is calculated by applying the EIR to the amortised cost. (i.e. the gross carrying amount less the allowance for expected credit losses).

The EIR is calculated by taking into account the fees and costs that are an integral part of the EIR of the loan such as origination fees received for acquisition of the loan and sourcing cost incurred for closing the transaction.

Fees, charges and reimbursements due from borrowers as per the contractual terms of the loan are recognised on realisation.

Any recovery from written off loan is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

5.4 Borrowings

5.4.1 Debt securities and other borrowings

The Group recognises debt securities and other borrowings when funds reach the Group.

Debt issued and other borrowed funds are subsequently measured at amortised cost. Amortised cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on issue funds, and costs that are an integral part of the EIR.

5.4.2 Foreign Currency Borrowings

Borrowings in foreign currencies are initially recorded at the respective functional currency spot rates at the date the transaction first qualifies for recognition. They are translated at the functional currency spot rates of exchange at the reporting date and exchange gains and losses arising on restatement are recognized under OCI in the statement of profit and loss as an adjustment to borrowing cost.

5.4.3 Derivative and Hedge accounting

The Group enters into derivative transactions only for economic hedging purposes and not as speculative investments. Derivative instruments are used to manage exposures to interest rate and foreign currency. In order to manage particular risks, the Group applies hedge accounting for transactions that meet specified criteria.

Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value at the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently remeasured to their fair value at each balance sheet date. The resulting gain/loss is recognised in statement of profit and loss immediately unless the derivative is designated and is effective as a hedging instrument, in which event the timing of the recognition in profit or loss depends on the nature of the hedge relationship.

Hedges that meet the strict criteria for hedge accounting are accounted for as cash flow hedge.

A cash flow hedge is a hedge of the exposure to variability in cash flows that is attributable to a particular risk associated with a recognised asset or liability (such as all or some future interest payments on variable rate debt) or a highly probable forecast transaction and could affect profit or loss.

For designated and qualifying cash flow hedges, the effective portion of the cumulative gain or loss on the hedging instrument is initially recognised directly in Other Comprehensive Income (OCI) within equity (cash flow hedge reserve). The ineffective portion of the gain or loss on the hedging instrument is recognised immediately as net gain/loss on fair value changes in the loss statement of profit and loss.

When a hedging instrument expires, is sold, terminated, exercised, or when a hedge no longer meets the criteria for hedge accounting, any cumulative gain or loss that has been recognised in OCI at that time remains in OCI and is recognised when the hedged forecast transaction is ultimately recognised in the statement of profit and loss. When a forecast transaction is no longer expected to occur, the cumulative gain or loss that was reported in OCI is immediately transferred to the statement of profit and loss.

5.4.4 Finance cost on Borrowing

Finance cost on borrowings measured at amortised cost is recorded using the effective interest rate ('EIR') method. The EIR is the rate that discounts estimated future payments through the expected life of the borrowing to its gross carrying amount. The EIR is calculated taking in to account any discount or premium on issue funds, and costs that are an integral part of the EIR.

6. Other accounting policies

6.1 Cash and Cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

6.2 Bank balances other cash and cash equivalents

These are measured at amortised cost as they are held for collecting contractual cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on principal outstanding.

6.3 Receivables and other financial assets

Receivables and other financial assets are measured at amortised cost. The Group follows a 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on these assets. The application of simplified approach does not require the Group to track changes in credit risk and calculated on case-by-case approach, taking into consideration different recovery scenarios.

6.4 Investments

Investments are initially recognised on the trade date, i.e., the date that the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

6.4.1 Equity instruments

Equity Investment in Subsidiaries and Joint Ventures are carried at Cost.

The Group subsequently measures all equity investments other than investment in subsidiaries and associates, at fair value through profit or loss, unless the Group's management has elected to classify irrevocably some of its equity investments not held for trading as equity instruments at Fair value through OCI (FVOCI). Such classification is determined on an instrument-by-instrument basis.

Gains and losses on these equity instruments are never recycled to profit or loss. Dividends are recognised in profit or loss as dividend income when the right of the payment has been established, except when the Group benefits from such proceeds as a recovery of part of the cost of the instrument, in which case, such gains are recorded in OCI (Other Comprehensive Income). Equity instruments at FVOCI are not subject to an impairment assessment.

6.4.2 Other Instruments

Investment in other instruments is measured at amortized cost if they are held for collecting contractual cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on principal outstanding. The Group follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on these assets. The application of simplified approach does not require the Group to track changes in credit risk and calculated on case by case approach, taking into consideration different recovery scenarios.

Investments which do not meet the SPPI test are measured at fair value through profit or loss.

6.5 Taxes

6.5.1 Current tax

Current tax comprises amount of tax payable in respect to the taxable income or loss for the year determined in accordance with Income Tax Act, 1961 and any adjustment to tax payable or receivable in respect of prior years.

Current tax assets and liabilities for the current and prior years are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from, or paid to, the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted, or substantively enacted, by the reporting date in the countries where the Group operates and generates taxable income.

Current tax assets and liabilities are offset only if there is a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts and is intended to realise the asset and settle the liability on a net basis or simultaneously.

Current income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity). Current tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate.

6.5.2 Deferred Tax

Deferred tax is provided on temporary differences at the reporting date between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, and the carry forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are re-assessed at each reporting date and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date. Deferred tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss (either in other comprehensive income or in equity). Deferred tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in equity.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the deferred taxes relate to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority and intends to settle on net basis.

6.6 Investment Property

Investment property represents property held to earn rentals or for capital appreciation or both.

Investment properties are measured initially at cost, including transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment properties are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment loss, if any.

Depreciation on building classified as investment property has been provided on the straight-line method over a period of 60 years based on the Group's estimate of their useful lives taking into consideration technical factors, which is the same as the period prescribed in Sch II to the Companies Act 2013.

6.7 Property, plant and equipment

Property plant and equipment is stated at cost (net of tax/duty credits availed) excluding the costs of day-to-day servicing, less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment in value. Cost includes professional fees/charges related to acquisition of property plant and equipment. Changes in the expected useful life are accounted for by changing the amortisation period or methodology, as appropriate, and treated as changes in accounting estimates.

Subsequent expenditure incurred, is capitalised only if it results in economic useful life beyond the original estimate.

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to write down the cost of property and equipment to their residual values over their estimated useful lives. Land is not depreciated.

Useful life of assets as per Schedule II:

Asset Description	Estimated Useful Life
Buildings	60/30/5 years
Computer Equipment	3 years
Other Equipment	5 years
Plant and Machinery	15 years
Leasehold improvements	Lease period or 5 years whichever is lower
Servers	6 years

Useful life of assets based on Management's estimation, and which are different from those specified in schedule II:

Asset description	Estimated useful life
Furniture and Fixtures	5 years
Vehicles	5 years

The above estimated useful life is based on respective asset usage policy or pattern of the group.

The residual values, useful lives and methods of depreciation of property, plant and equipment are reviewed at each financial year end and adjusted prospectively, if appropriate.

Property plant and equipment is derecognised on disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is recognised in other income / expense in the statement of profit and loss in the year the asset is derecognised. The date of disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment is the date the recipient obtains control of that item.

6.8 Leases

The Group's lease asset consists of leases for buildings. The Group assesses whether a contract contains a lease, at inception of a contract.

At the date of commencement of the lease, the Group recognises a right-to-use asset and a corresponding lease liability for all lease arrangements in which it is a lessee, except for leases with a term of twelve months or less (short-term leases) and low value leases. For these short-term and low value leases, the Group recognises the lease payments as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

The right-to-use asset is initially recognised at cost which comprises of the initial amount of lease liability adjusted for lease payments made or prior to commencement date plus any direct cost i.e. lease incentives. They are subsequently measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment loss if any.

Certain lease arrangements include the options to extend or terminate the lease before the end of the lease term. ROU assets and lease liabilities includes these options when it is reasonably certain that they will be exercised.

Right-to-Use assets are depreciated from the commencement date on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease term. Right to use assets are evaluated for recoverability whenever events or changes in the circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable.

The lease liability is initially measured at amortised cost at the present value of the future lease payments. The lease payments are discounted using the incremental borrowing rates in the country of domicile of the leases. The Group has used single discount rate to a portfolio of leases with similar characteristics. Lease liabilities are remeasured with a corresponding adjustment to the related right to use asset if the Group changes its assessment as to whether it will exercise an extension or a termination option.

The Group has opted to present the Right to use as a part of the block of asset to which the lease pertains to and consequently, the Right to use asset has been presented as a part of Property, plant and equipment under the buildings block, whereas the lease liability is presented under Other Financial Liabilities in the Balance Sheet. Lease payments made by the Group are classified as financing cash flows.

6.9 Intangible assets

The Group's intangible assets mainly include the value of computer software and internally generated software.

An intangible asset is recognised only when its cost can be measured reliably and it is probable that the expected future economic benefits that are attributable to it will flow to the Group.

Intangible assets including internally generated are measured on initial recognition at cost. Subsequently, they are carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment losses if any, and are amortised over their estimated useful life on the straight-line basis over a 3-year period or the license period whichever is lower.

The carrying amount of the assets is reviewed at each Balance sheet date to ascertain impairment based on internal or external factors. Impairment loss, if any, is provided to the extent, the carrying amount of assets exceeds their recoverable amount. Recoverable amount is the higher of an assets net selling price and the present value of estimated future cash flows expected to arise from the continuing use of the asset and from its disposal at the end of its useful life.

6.10 Input Tax Credit (Goods and Service Tax)

Input Tax Credit is accounted for in the books in the period when the underlying service / supply received is accounted to the extent permitted as per the applicable regulatory laws and when there is no uncertainty in availing / utilising the same. The ineligible input credit is charged off to the respective expense or capitalised as part of asset cost as applicable.

6.11 Provisions and Contingent liabilities

Provisions are recognised only when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of past events, and it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. When the effect of the time value of money is material, the Group determines the level of provision by discounting the expected cash flows at a pre-tax rate reflecting the current rates specific to the liability. The expense relating to any provision is presented in the statement of profit and loss net of any reimbursement.

Provisions are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate. If it is no longer probable that an outflow of resources would be required to settle the obligation, the provision is reversed.

Contingent liability is disclosed in case of present obligation arising from past events, when it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligations and the present obligation arising from past events, when no reliable estimate is possible.

6.12 Share Based Payments

Stock options are granted to the employees under the stock option scheme. The costs of stock options granted to the employees (equity-settled awards) of the Group are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments granted. For each stock option, the measurement of fair value is performed on the grant date. The grant date is the date on which the Group and the employees agree to the stock option scheme. The fair value so determined is revised only if the stock option scheme is modified in a manner that is beneficial to the employees.

This cost is recognised, together with a corresponding increase in share-based payment (SBP) reserves in equity, over the period in which the performance and/or service conditions are fulfilled in employee benefits expense. The cumulative expense recognised for equity-settled transactions at each reporting date until the vesting date reflects the extent to which the vesting period has expired and the Group's best estimate of the number of equity instruments that will ultimately vest. The statement of profit and loss expense or Credit for a period represents the movement in cumulative expense recognised as at the beginning and end of that period and is recognised in employee benefits expense. On cancellation or lapse of options granted to employees, the compensation charged earlier will be moved from share based payment reserve with corresponding credit in retained earnings.

The dilutive effect of outstanding options is reflected as additional share dilution in the computation of diluted earnings per share.

If the options vests in instalments (i.e. the options vest pro rata over the service period), then each instalment

For the year ended March 31, 2026

is treated as a separate share option grant because each instalment has a different vesting period.

6.13 Dividend on ordinary shares

The Group recognises a liability to make cash distributions to equity holders when the distribution is authorised and the distribution is no longer at the discretion of the Group. As per the Companies Act, 2013 in India, a distribution of final dividend is authorised when it is approved by the shareholders and interim dividend approved by the Board. A corresponding amount is then recognised directly in equity. In case of interim dividend, it is recognised at the time of payment as they are revocable till actually paid.

6.14 Revenue recognition - other than financial assets

Revenue (other than for those items to which Ind AS 109 Financial Instruments are applicable) is recognised at fair value of the consideration received or receivable when the Group satisfies the performance obligation under the contract with the customer.

6.15 Dividend Income

Dividend income (including from FVOCI investments) is recognised when the Group's right to receive the payment is established and it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the entity and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

6.16 Employee benefits

(i) Short-term obligations

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service are recognized in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting period and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. The liabilities are presented as employee benefit obligations in the balance sheet.

(ii) Post-employment obligations

The Group operates the following post-employment schemes:

(a) defined contribution plans such as provident fund, superannuation and Employee's state insurance scheme

(b) defined benefit plans such as gratuity

a) Defined Contribution Scheme

Retirement benefit in the form of provident fund is a defined contribution scheme. The Group has no obligation, other than the contribution payable to the provident fund. The Group recognises contribution payable to the provident fund scheme as an expense, when an employee renders the related service.

Employees' State Insurance: The Group contributes to Employees State Insurance Scheme and recognizes such contribution as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the period when services are rendered by the employees.

Superannuation: The Group contributes a sum equivalent to 15% of eligible employees' salary to a Superannuation Fund administered by trustees and managed by Life Insurance Corporation of India ("LIC"). The Group has no liability for future Superannuation Fund benefits other than its contribution and recognizes such contributions as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the period when services are rendered by the employees.

b) Defined Benefit Scheme

Gratuity: The Group makes contribution to a Gratuity Fund administered by trustees and managed by LIC. The Group accounts its liability for future gratuity benefits based on actuarial valuation, as at the Balance Sheet date, determined every year by an independent actuary using the Projected Unit Credit method.

Re-measurements, comprising of actuarial gains and losses, the effect of the asset ceiling, excluding amounts included in net interest on the net defined benefit liability and the return on plan assets are recognised immediately in the balance sheet with a corresponding debit or credit to retained earnings through OCI in the period in which they occur. Remeasurements are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods.

Past service costs are recognised in profit or loss on the earlier of:

- The date of the plan amendment or curtailment, and
- The date that the Group recognises related restructuring costs

Net interest is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net defined benefit liability or asset. The Group recognises the following changes in the net defined benefit obligation as an expense in the statement of profit and loss:

- Service costs comprising current service costs, past-service costs, gains and losses on curtailments and non-routine settlements; and
- Net interest expense or income

c) Compensated Absences: The Group treats its liability for compensated absences based on actuarial valuation as at the Balance Sheet date, determined by an independent actuary using the Projected Unit Credit method.

Actuarial gains and losses are recognised under OCI in the statement of Profit and Loss in the year in which they occur and not deferred.

6.17 Earnings Per Share

Basic Earnings Per Share is calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year.

For the year ended March 31, 2026

The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period and for all periods presented is adjusted for events, such as bonus shares, other than the conversion of potential equity shares, that have changed the number of equity shares outstanding, without a corresponding change in resources. For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the year attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year is adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

6.18 Cash Flow Statement

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, where by profit / (loss) before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments.

For the purpose of the Statement of Cash Flows, cash and cash equivalents as defined above, net of outstanding bank overdrafts as they are considered an integral part of cash management of the Group.

6.19 Segment Information

An operating segment is a component of the Group that engages in the business activities from which it may earn revenues and incur expenses, whose operating results are regularly reviewed by Group's Chief operating decision maker.

Revenue and expenses have been identified to segments on the basis of their relationship to the operating activities of the Segment. Revenue and expenses, which relate to the enterprise as a whole and are not allocable to Segments on a reasonable basis have been included under "Un-allocable".

Assets and liabilities have been identified to segments on the basis of their relationship to the operating activities of the Segment. Assets and liabilities, which relate to the enterprise as a whole and are not allocable to Segments on a reasonable basis have been included under "Un-allocable".

6A. Significant accounting judgements, estimates and assumptions

The preparation of the Group's financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the accompanying disclosures, as well as the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that require a material adjustment to the carrying amount of assets or liabilities affected in future period

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgements/ estimates, which have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

i. Business Model Assessment

The Group from time to time enters into direct bilateral assignment deals, which qualify for de-recognition under Ind AS 109. Accordingly, the assessment of the Group's business model for managing its financial assets becomes a critical judgment.

Further, the Group also made an investment in the Government securities in order to comply the liquidity ratio compliance as required by RBI pursuant to its master directions. The Group intends to hold these assets till maturity and expects that any sale if any necessitated by requirements are likely to be infrequent and immaterial. Accordingly, the related assessment becomes a critical judgement to determine the business model for such financial assets under Ind AS.

ii. Fair value of financial instruments

The fair value of financial instruments is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction in the principal (or most advantageous) market at the measurement date under current market conditions (i.e., an exit price) regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. When the fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities recorded in the balance sheet cannot be derived from active markets, they are determined using a variety of valuation techniques that include the use of valuation models. The inputs to these models are taken from observable markets where possible, but where this is not feasible, estimation is required in establishing fair values. Judgements and estimates include considerations of liquidity and model inputs related to items such as credit risk (both own and counterparty), funding value adjustments, correlation and volatility.

iii. Impairment of financial asset

The measurement of impairment losses across all categories of financial assets requires judgement, in particular, the estimation of the amount and timing of future cash flows and collateral values when determining impairment losses and the assessment of a significant increase in credit risk. These estimates are driven by a number of factors, changes in which can result in different levels of allowances.

The Group's ECL calculations are outputs of complex models with a number of underlying assumptions regarding the choice of variable inputs and their interdependencies. Elements of the ECL models that are considered accounting estimates include:

- The Group's criteria for assessing if there has been a significant increase in credit risk and so allowances for financial assets should be measured on a LTECL basis and the qualitative assessment

For the year ended March 31, 2026

- Development of ECL models, including the various formulas and the choice of inputs
- Determination of temporary adjustments as qualitative adjustment or overlays based on broad range of forward-looking information as economic inputs

It has been the Group's policy to regularly review its models in the context of actual loss experience and adjust when necessary.

iv. Leases

a. Determining the lease term of contracts with renewal and termination options – Group as lessee

The Group determines the lease term as the non-cancellable term of the lease, together with any periods covered by an option to extend the lease if it is reasonably certain to be exercised, or any periods covered by an option to terminate the lease, if it is reasonably certain not to be exercised. The Group applies judgement in evaluating whether it is reasonably certain whether or not to exercise the option to renew or terminate the lease. That is, it considers all relevant factors that create an economic incentive for it to exercise either the renewal or termination.

b. Estimating the incremental borrowing rate

The Group cannot readily determine the interest rate implicit in the lease, therefore, it uses its incremental borrowing rate (IBR) to measure lease liabilities. The IBR is the rate of interest that the Group would have to pay to for its borrowings.

v. Provisions and other contingent liabilities

When the Group can reliably measure the outflow of economic benefits in relation to a specific case and considers such outflows to be probable, the Group records a provision against the case. Where the probability of outflow is considered to be remote, or probable, but a reliable estimate cannot be made, a contingent liability is disclosed.

Given the subjectivity and uncertainty of determining the probability and amount of losses, the Group takes into account a number of factors including legal advice, the stage of the matter and historical evidence from similar incidents. Significant judgement is required to conclude on these estimates.

6B. New amendments issued but not effective

Ministry of Corporate Affairs ("MCA") notifies new standards or amendments to the existing standards under Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules as issued from time to time. As at the date of authorisation of these financial statements, the Company has not applied the following new amendment to Ind AS that has been issued but is not yet effective:

Amendment to Ind AS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements

Where a covenant breach exists on or before the reporting date and, as a result, the liability becomes payable on demand on that date, the liability must be classified as current, even if the lender subsequently (i.e. after the reporting date but before approval of the financial statements) agrees not to demand payment.

The Company does not expect that the adoption of this amendment to have any material impact on the financial statements of the Company in future periods. However, in case of breach of covenants in future, the liability for long-term borrowings will be classified as current and will become repayable on demand.

- The estimate of future salary increase takes into account inflation, seniority, promotion and other relevant factors.
- The Group's best estimate of contribution during the next year is ₹ 246.57 crores.
- Discount rate is based on the prevailing market yields of Indian Government Bonds as at the Balance Sheet date for the estimated term of the obligation.
- The entire Plan Assets are invested in insurer managed funds with Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC).
- The above sensitivity analysis are based on change in an assumption which is holding all the other assumptions constant. In practice, this is unlikely to occur, and changes in some assumptions may be correlated. When calculating the sensitivity of defined benefit obligation to significant actuarial assumptions the same method of present value of defined benefit obligations calculated with Projected unit cost method at the end of the reporting period has been applied while calculating defined benefit liability recognised in the balance sheet.
- The method and type of assumptions used in preparing the sensitivity analysis does not change compared to the prior period.

Description of Risk exposures

Valuations are performed on certain basic set of pre-determined assumptions and other regulatory framework which may vary over time. Thus, the Group is exposed to various risks in providing the above gratuity benefit which are as follows:

- (a) Interest Rate risk: The plan exposes the Group to the risk of fall in interest rates. A fall in interest rates will result in an increase in the ultimate cost of providing the above benefit and will thus result in an increase in the value of the liability (as shown in financial statements).
- (b) Liquidity Risk: This is the risk that the Group is not able to meet the short-term gratuity payouts. This may arise due to non-availability of enough cash/cash equivalent to meet the liabilities or holding of illiquid assets not being sold in time.
- (c) Salary Escalation Risk: The present value of the defined benefit plan is calculated with the assumption of salary increase rate of plan participants in future. Deviation in the rate of increase of salary in future for plan participants from the rate of increase in salary used to determine the present value of obligation will have a bearing on the plan's liability.
- (d) Demographic Risk: The Group has used certain mortality and attrition assumptions in valuation of the liability. The Group is exposed to the risk of actual experience turning out to be worse compared to the assumption.
- (e) Regulatory Risk: Gratuity benefit is paid in accordance with the requirements of the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 (as amended from time to time). There is a risk of change in regulations requiring higher gratuity payouts.
- (f) Asset Liability Mismatching or Market Risk: The duration of the liability is longer compared to duration of assets, exposing the Group to market risk for volatilities/fall in interest rate.
- (g) Investment Risk: The probability or likelihood of occurrence of losses relative to the expected return on a particular investment.

Note : 45.1 CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Group maintains an actively managed capital base to cover risks inherent in the business, meeting the capital adequacy requirements of Reserve Bank of India (RBI), maintain strong credit rating and healthy capital ratios in order to support business and maximise shareholder value. The adequacy of the Group's capital is monitored by the Board using, among other measures, the regulations issued by RBI.

The Group manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it according to changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of its activities. In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the amount of dividend payment to shareholders, return capital to shareholders or issue capital securities.

The Group has complied in full with the capital requirements prescribed by RBI over the reported year. The Capital adequacy ratio as of March 31, 2026 is 19.21% (March 31, 2025 - 19.75%) as against the regulatory requirement of 15%.

45.2 FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The key financial risks faced by the Group are credit and market risks comprising liquidity risk, interest rate risk and foreign currency risks.

45.2.1 Credit Risk

Credit risk arises when a borrower is unable to meet his financial obligations to the lender. This could be either because of wrong assessment of the borrower's payment capabilities or due to uncertainties in his future earning potential. The effective management of credit risk requires the establishment of appropriate credit risk policies and processes.

45.2.1.1 Assessment Methodology

The company has comprehensive and well-defined credit policies across various businesses, products and segments, which encompass credit approval process for all businesses along with guidelines for mitigating the risks associated with them. The appraisal process includes detailed risk assessment of the borrowers, physical verifications and field visits. The company has a robust post sanction monitoring process to identify credit portfolio trends and early warning signals. This enables it to implement necessary changes to the credit policy, whenever the need arises. Also, being in asset financing business, most of the company's lending is covered by adequate collaterals from the borrowers. The company has a robust online application and underwriting model to assess the credit worthiness of the borrower for underwriting decisions for its Vehicle Finance, Loan Against Property, Home loan, Secured business and Personal loan, Consumer durables, Small and medium enterprise loans, Consumer small enterprise loan and Gold loan business. The company also has a well-developed model for the Vehicle Finance Portfolio, to help business teams plan volume with adequate pricing of risk for different segments of the portfolio.

45.2.1.2 Risk Management and Portfolio Review

The Group has a robust portfolio review mechanism. Key metrics like early delinquency, default rates are tracked, monitored and reviewed daily. Business teams review key trends in these Key Risk Indicators and location level strategies are adopted.

45.2.1.3 ECL Methodology

The Group records allowance for expected credit losses for all financial assets including loan commitments, other than those measured at FVTPL. Equity instruments carried at cost are not subject to impairment under the ECL methodology and tested for impairment as per Ind AS 36.

45.2.1.4 Assumptions and Estimation techniques

The Group calculates ECLs to measure the expected cash shortfalls, discounted at an approximation to the EIR. A cash shortfall is the difference between the cash flows that are due to an entity in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the entity expects to receive. ECL is computed on collective basis. The portfolio is segmented based on shared risk characteristics for the computation of ECL.

The key elements of the ECL are summarised below:

45.2.1.4(a) PD

The Probability of Default is an estimate of the likelihood of default over a given time horizon. A default may only happen at a certain time over the assessed period, if the facility has not been previously derecognised and is still in the portfolio. While computing probability of default, significant outlier events are suitably handled to ensure it does not skew the outcomes.

A 12M marginal PD is computed by creating cohorts of accounts starting in Stage 1 at the beginning of the year and subsequently moving to Stage 3 at any point in time during the year.

A conditional average probability of default is computed by taking cohort of which were in Stage 2 at the beginning the year and subsequently moved to Stage 3 anytime in each subsequent year

45.2.1.4(b) EAD

The Exposure at Default is an estimate of the exposure at a future default date (in case of Stage 1 and Stage 2), taking into account expected changes in the exposure after the reporting date, including repayments of principal and interest, whether scheduled by contract or otherwise, expected drawdowns on committed facilities, and accrued interest from missed payments. In case of Stage 3 loans EAD represents exposure when the default occurred.

45.2.1.4(c) LGD

The Loss Given Default is an estimate of the loss arising in the case where a default occurs at a given time. It is based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due and those that the lender would expect to receive, including from the realisation of any collateral. It is usually expressed as a percentage of the EAD. The recoveries are discounted back to the default date using customer IRR. This present value of recovery is used for LGD computation. A recovery rate (RR) computed as the ratio of present value of recovery to the EAD ( $1 - RR$ ), gives the LGD.

45.2.1.5 Mechanics of the ECL method

Stage 1:

All loans (other than purchased credit impaired asset) are categorised as Stage 1 on initial recognition. The 12 months ECL is calculated as the portion of LTECLs that represent the ECLs that result from default events on a financial instrument that are possible within the 12 months after the reporting date. The Group calculates the 12 months ECL allowance based on the expectation of a default occurring in the 12 months following the reporting date. These expected 12-month default probabilities are applied to EAD and multiplied by the expected LGD and discounted by an approximation to the original EIR.

Stage 2:

Loans which are past due for more than 30 days are categorised as Stage 2. When a loan has shown a significant increase in credit risk since origination, the Group records an allowance for the LTECLs PDs and LGDs are estimated over the lifetime of the instrument. The expected cash shortfalls are discounted by an approximation to the original EIR.

Stage 3:

Loans which are past due for more than 90 days are categorised as Stage 3. For loans considered credit-impaired, the Group recognises the lifetime expected credit losses for these loans. The method is similar to that for Stage 2 assets, with the PD set at 100%

Restructured loans are categorised as Stage 3 on the date of restructuring and remain so for a period of one year. Post this, regular staging criteria applies.

Loans which have been renegotiated or modified in accordance with RBI Notifications for COVID-19 related stress has been classified as Stage 2 due to significant increase in credit risk.

The Post Implementation Staging of Loans restructured under Covid Resolution framework shall follow the Days Past Due of respective loan agreements.

In respect of new lending products, where historical information is not available, the group follows simplified matrix approach for determining impairment allowance based on industry practise. These loans constitute around 14% of the total loan book.

Loan commitment:

When estimating LTECLs for undrawn loan commitments, the Group estimates the expected portion of the loan commitment that will be drawn down over its expected life. The ECL is then based on the present value of the expected shortfalls in cash flows if the loan is drawn down. The expected cash shortfalls are discounted at an approximation to the expected EIR on the loan. For an undrawn loan commitment, ECLs are calculated and presented under provisions.

Other Financial assets:

The Group follows 'simplified approach' for recognition of impairment loss allowance on other financial assets. The application of simplified approach does not require the Group to track changes in credit risk and calculated on case by case approach, taking into consideration different recovery scenarios.

45.2.1.6 Incorporation of forward looking statements in ECL model

The Group considers a broad range of forward looking information with reference to external forecasts of economic parameters such as GDP growth, Inflation, Government Expenditure etc., as considered relevant so as to determine the impact of macro-economic factors on the Group's ECL estimates.

The inputs and models used for calculating ECLs are recalibrated periodically through the use of available incremental and recent information. Further, internal estimates of PD, LGD rates used in the ECL model may not always capture all the characteristics of the market / external environment as at the date of the financial statements. To reflect this, qualitative adjustments or overlays are made as temporary adjustments to reflect the emerging risks reasonably.

Annual data from 2019 to 2028 (including forecasts for 4 years) were obtained from World Economic Outlook, October 2023 published by International Monetary Fund (IMF). IMF provides historical and forecasted data for important economic indicators country-wise. The data provided for India is used for the analysis. Macro variables that were compared against default rates at segment level to determine the key variables having correlation with the default rates using appropriate statistical techniques. Vasiceks model has been incorporated to find the Point in Time (PIT) PD. The Group has formulated the methodology for creation of macro-economic scenarios under the premise of economic baseline, upside and downside condition. A final PIT PD is arrived as the scenario weighted PIT PD under different macroeconomic scenarios.

45.2.2 Market Risk

Market Risk is the possibility of loss arising from changes in the value of a financial instrument as a result of changes in market variables such as interest rates, exchange rates. The Group's exposure to market risk is a function of asset liability management and interest rate sensitivity assessment. The Group is exposed to interest rate risk and liquidity risk, if the same is not managed properly. The Group continuously monitors these risks and manages them through appropriate risk limits. The Asset Liability Management Committee (ALCO) reviews market-related trends and risks and adopts various strategies related to assets and liabilities, in line with the Group's risk management framework. ALCO activities are in turn monitored and reviewed by a board sub-committee. In addition, the Group has put in an Asset Liability Management (ALM) support group which meets frequently to review the liquidity position of the Group.

45.2.2.1 Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is defined as the risk that the Group will encounter difficulty in meeting obligations associated with financial liabilities that are settled by delivering cash or another financial asset. Liquidity risk arises because of the possibility that the Group might be unable to meet its payment obligations when they fall due as a result of mismatches in the timing of the cash flows under both normal and stress circumstances. Such scenarios could occur when funding needed for illiquid asset positions is not available to the Group on acceptable terms. To limit this risk, management has arranged for diversified funding sources and adopted a policy of availing funding in line with the tenor and repayment pattern of its receivables and monitors future cash flows and liquidity on a daily basis. The Group has developed internal control processes and contingency plans for managing liquidity risk. This incorporates an assessment of expected cash flows and the availability of unencumbered receivables which could be used to secure funding by way of assignment if required. The Group also has lines of credit that it can access to meet liquidity needs. These are reviewed by the Asset Liability Committee (ALCO) on a monthly basis.

Note : 45 CAPITAL MANAGEMENT (Contd.)

The ALCO provides strategic direction and guidance on liquidity risk management. A sub-committee of the ALCO, comprising members from the Treasury and Risk functions, monitor liquidity risks on a weekly basis and decisions are taken on the funding plan and levels of investible surplus, from the ALM perspective. This sets the boundaries for daily cash flow management.

Analysis of Financial liabilities by remaining contractual maturities given in Note 48.

45.2.2.2 Interest Rate Risk

The Group being in the business of lending raises money from diversified sources like market borrowings, term Loan from banks and financial institutions, foreign currency borrowings etc. Financial assets and liabilities constitute significant portion, changes in market interest rates can adversely affect the financial condition. The fluctuations in interest rates can be due to internal and external factors. Internal factors include the composition of assets and liabilities across maturities, existing rates and re-pricing of various sources of borrowings. External factors include macro-economic developments, competitive pressures, regulatory developments and global factors. The movement in interest rates (upward / downward) will impact the Net Interest Income depending upon rate sensitivity of the asset or liability. The Group uses traditional gap analysis report to determine the vulnerability to movements in interest rates. The Gap is the difference between Rate Sensitive Assets (RSA) and Rate Sensitive Liabilities (RSL) for each time bucket. A positive gap indicates that the Group can benefit from rising interest rates while a negative gap indicates that the Group can benefit from declining interest rates. Based on market conditions, the Group enters into interest rate swap to mitigate interest rate risk.

45.2.2.3 Foreign Currency Risk

Foreign currency risk for the Group arises majorly on account of foreign currency borrowings. The Group manages this foreign currency risk by entering in to cross currency swaps and forward contract. When a derivative is entered in to for the purpose of being as hedge, the Group negotiates the terms of those derivatives to match with the terms of the hedged exposure.

The Group holds derivative financial instruments such as Cross currency interest rate swap to mitigate risk of changes in exchange rate in foreign currency and floating interest rate.

The Counterparty for these contracts is generally a bank. These derivative financial instruments are valued based on quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets or inputs that are directly or indirectly observable in market place.
